Kiltie Band Appearing At NFHS March 20

FARMINGTON Alma College's colorful Kiltie Band will appear in concert in North Farmington High School under the sponsorship of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

The concert, part of a four-state 1972 spring tour, begins at 8 p.m. on March 20 and is open to the public.

THE 75-MEMBER band, well-known for its marching season performances when it is attired in kilt uniforms of Royal MacPherson tartan, is also acclaimed as an outstanding concert unit.

During the past four years, it has traveled 12,000 miles to present concerts in 12 states.

Providing the Scottish flavor at the 14 performances on the tour will be four dancing lasses, all student members of the band who will do the Highland Fling, accompanied by a piper.

JACK W. BOWMAN, band director, has been a member of the Alma Music Department faculty since 1968 and also conducts the Alma Symphony Orchestra.

Bowman is a member of the Friends of Music Chamber Ensemble and makes frequent solo appearances as a clarinetist and organist.
