DEBATE TEAM WILL GO TO ANN ARBOR

The debaters will journey to Ann Arbor High School for the all important second round in the Michigan High School Forensic Association tournaments on Wednesday, January 16. These debates will decide whether or not the Farmington High debate teams will be able to continue in competition this year, for they must win all four of their debates if they are to go any further.

The team's first tournament debates on this year's subject were held at River Rouge High School, where they won one out of four. The affirmative team, consisting of Donna Lee Rowland and Peggy Labadie, dropped two to Lincoln Park, and Melvindale and Janet and Nancy Robertson of the negative team won one debate from Lincoln Park but lost to Ann Arbor.

Coach Smith made the following observation: "The season thus far has proved very fruitful to the debaters, and the question had aroused much interest. The future for Farmington debating looks very bright because of the increasing interest in debating of lower classmen. For the past two seasons F.H.S. debate teams have been made up of Seniors, and hence this year we had to start with new material."

Students Enjoy Music Program

The Girls' and Boys' Glee clubs under the direction of Miss Phyllis Gardner and Mr. Lloyd Smith combined to present a Christmas program Friday afternoon in the auditorium.

While typical numbers were sung, scenes were portrayed on the stage — for example, during the Nativity scene, the girls sang "Sanctus" from St. Cecilia Mass, "Gesu Bambino" by Pietro Yon and "Gloria," an old French carol. The program was directed by Miss Virginia Carley, assisted by Miss Mildred Abbott and Mr. Tarmo Maastila.

New Year's Party Is December 29

The Board of Education will be host once again to all High and Junior High school boys and girls who like to dance, when the Annual New Year's Party is held in the gym on Saturday evening, December 29, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Only those who will dance are invited to attend.

The Student Council is organizing the activities and decorating the hall. Bob Miller is in charge of refreshments; Carol Joy and Elizabeth Johnson, decorations; and Bill Conroy, orchestra.

AUSTIN GRANT SPEAKS WITH F.H.S. STUDENTS

Austin Grant, WWJ news commentator, met with members of the freshman Social Living and senior Speech classes in the Study Hall, Monday, December 17.

Informally he told them of his experiences in radio, and previously in New York show production, or answered their questions concerning compulsory military training, juvenile delinquency, and the future of television.

THUMBNAIL BIOGRAPHIES

Mary June Ebersole
A contribution from Toledo, Ohio, to Farmington High, is 17 years old, has brown hair, gray green eyes, and is named Mary June. Ambition: College, and then, who knows? Ideal Date: (Picked you, didn't we?) He must have a fine character, a well-rounded personality, and a touch of humor. A college prom would suit M.J. fine. She likes to travel and already has quite a bit of experience in that line, having attended four schools in the past three years. Favorite color—red. Favorite song—"Italian Street Song" from the opera "Naughty Marietta."

Naomi Cox
Our Managing Editor of the "Blue and White" is 16 years old. Her hair is dark brown and her eyes hazel. Her ambition—marriage and literary work. Ideal Date: 5 ft. 1 inch, blue eyes, and light brown hair. She proves her bubbling vitality by saying that she and her date would go bowling or dancing. Favorite Song—Roger's and Hart's "Our Romance."

Dance To Be Held After Milford Game

The Student Council is planning to hold a dance after the Milford basketball game, on January 4th. These dances have always been popular, and the Council would like the usual large turnout.

GREENFIELD'S FAMOUS FOODS

AS we write this message to the legion of Greenfield patrons in Michigan, a New Year is on the threshold. It is fitting, therefore, that we offer heartiest greetings . . . and a sincere wish that 1946 brings you a heaping portion of health, happiness and prosperity.

Greenfield's volume of patronage in 1945 exceeded all previous records, despite critical labor and material shortages. Over FOUR AND A HALF MILLION meals were served. Likewise, in the purchase of Michigan grown foodstuffs, new highs were set by many thousands of dollars. Our greatest pride, however, is in the many complimentary expressions from guests and their recommendation of Greenfield's to friends.

Please accept this as a special invitation to visit Greenfield's on your next visit to Detroit. We're sure you'll enjoy the wide variety of famous foods, prepared by expert culinary staffs and skilled dietitians. Satisfying portions and popular prices are other features that will make your visit a happy event.
