

FIFTY EIGHTH YEAR - NUMBER 12

FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1946

5 Cents a Copy

THIS IS THE TIME... of year that we still stop long enough to take a personal inventory...

...selves are so much a part of the person we are that they crop up every so often despite all our efforts to eliminate them...

NEW YEAR'S EVE... appears to have been a most beautiful, quiet celebration in the households of Farmington...

YOUNGER RESIDENTS... were back in school Wednesday morning en masse, all set to buckle down to their books again...

HAVENT HEARD... as yet - nor could we find out who Farmington's first 1946 baby may have been...

THOSE... who failed to attend the Christmas Candle Light service held Sunday evening...

ALWAYS GOOD ADVICE... it hasn't changed in the slightest since the war is over...

forget to keep up your purchase of United States Savings Bonds... it is the best investment you can make.
