

BEST PICTURES
DAILY DETROIT TIMES
3 PICTURE PAGES
PHONE CH 8800 For Delivery

A LOVELY COIFFURE
THAT'S DIFFERENT —
A style that "does the most" for you.
All Beauty Work Guaranteed
Twin's Beauty Shop
PHONE 0475

YOU'RE MISSING BIG THINGS IF YOU FAIL TO USE THE YELLOW PAGES OF THE TELEPHONE DIRECTORY FOR BUYING INFORMATION

WEST POINT PARK
By L. A. Ault

Mrs. and Mrs. Norbert Schmitt and children of Shadybrook Ave. left Saturday morning to spend a few days with relatives near Rockford, Ind.

Forrest E. Ault, Mayfield Ave. visited with his sister, Mrs. Johnson Porter, near New London, Ohio, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mrs. George Middlewood and children of Farmington Road are spending a couple of weeks with relatives at Hudson.

Mrs. John Oman and daughter, Ruth Ann, from Toledo, are visiting Mrs. Oman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault and other relatives here for two weeks.

Mrs. Margaret Martin spent Wednesday evening with relatives in Redford and attended a housewarming shower for one of her granddaughters.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith of Detroit were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Marvin Addis and Mrs. M. E. Ault spent Thursday in Detroit together.

Richard Varhol, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol, is quite ill.

Alfred Schult, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, Shadybrook Ave., is reported on the sick list.

Mrs. Albert Owen has been convalescing from flu.

Mrs. Emerson Ault and Miss Lora Ault were visitors in downtown Detroit Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Sherman and children from Detroit were guests of Mrs. William Sherman, Mayfield Ave., Thursday.

High School boys and girls enjoyed one or two days of between-semester vacation this last week.

Edward Stange, Jr. attended the hockey game in Detroit Saturday evening.

The Ferguson, who have been visiting relatives here for two weeks are leaving this next Monday for their home in Canada.

James Galloway, who was visiting his sister, Mrs. Walter Rehahn, has moved on to visit other relatives.

Mrs. Rehahn's niece, Mrs. Plopie Smith, from northern Michigan, is now her guest.

Mrs. Eric Anderson is again at her old position teaching the first graders of Pierson School.

The Misses Marion and Anne Johnson from over on Clarita Ave. were dinner guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Ault, Saturday evening.

Neighbors and friends are offering their sympathy to Mrs. Stanley Chavey, Mayfield Ave., whose sister, Mrs. Charles Craig, died in Detroit last Wednesday.

Mrs. Craig, a frequent visitor in West Point Park, had been in poor health for some time. Besides her husband, Mrs. Craig leaves a seven-year-old daughter, Joanne, who is expected to make her home with the Chaveys.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the George Haas Funeral Home in Martindale.

Friends of Harry Hoaglan, formerly of West Point Park but now residing in Florida, hear that he has recovered sufficiently from his injuries of a few months back to be getting about on crutches.

Another item of interest to many old neighbors of the Hoaglans, is the news that "Chubby," the large pet dog Mr. Hoaglan took with him to the South, died recently.

A very pleasant get-together was held at the home of Mrs. M. E. Ault Wednesday evening when members of her card club met for their usual every-other-week party. Worthwhile prizes were awarded winners at the games. Delicious refreshments were served.

It is understood that Memorial Services are being planned for Donald and Dean Coolman, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman, Shadybrook Ave. Lt. Don Coolman was killed in a plane crash over Italy in December, 1944. His younger brother, Dean, was reported missing in action less than a month later and a recent communication from the War Department declared him officially dead. It is expected that relatives from Indiana will arrive to be present at the services that are now being arranged for.

Mrs. Virginia Jones and little son are again with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Puert of Shadybrook Ave. and Private Jones of the U.S. Army is expected to join his wife there shortly.

Ernest Pierrat, who moved in the European war theater, is now at home with his folks.

The Boys and Girls Group, working in connection with the Neighborhood Church, honored Alice Jane Vance at their regular meeting last Friday night, since the date happened to be the young lady's eleventh birthday.

These young folks are planning a Valentine exchange following their February 8th meeting. This affair will probably be held in the Neighborhood Church. During the severe winter weather months of their meetings have been held in a nearby home.

"Why Are We Here?" was the question under discussion at the Vesper Meeting in the Neighborhood Church this Sunday evening.

He Listened To His Wife

She urged him to take out our Health and Accident Policy, and is he glad he did? Laid up for three months, he's able to take care of all his bills without worry.

KENN LOOMIS
Insurance for Every Need
23284 Farmington Rd.
Phone 0397

Another interesting program is being arranged for next Sunday evening.

Miss Frances Hough of Farmington Road flew to Cleveland, Tennessee, on Sunday. She is continuing her high school education there at Bob Jones College, majoring in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thayer celebrated their first wedding anniversary with a dinner at Huck's Inn on Tuesday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaufel, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Fleming, all of whom presented the honored couple with gifts of paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Turner, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner of Dearborn, and another couple, spent the week end in New York City.

Miss Marian York of Saginaw spent the week end with Miss Ruth Schroeder of Shilawassee.

FARMINGTON DAIRY MILK
NOW SERVED FROM THIS NEW SQUARE BOTTLE

The same rich, delicious Farmington Dairy Milk, perfect for children and for grown-ups, in a new convenient bottle.

Farmington Dairy Milk is Always Pure—always wholesome. Make milk a daily habit with your family.

SEE THE DIFFERENCE

Easier to Use
Takes Less Room
Gives You A Full Measure
TRY IT TODAY!

FARMINGTON DAIRY
33219 Grand River Phone 0135

YOUR HOUSE

Lumber Supplies Now Available
2 x 4's 8 feet length
Knotty Pine Paneling
Cedar Paneling
White Pine Sheathing
Yellow Pine Siding
Spruce Siding
Trim and Molding
GARAGES

A SMALL HOUSE FOR A SMALL FAMILY

The Piedmont is all one-story; one of the Post War Series of All American Homes chosen from exclusive designs of the Monthly Small House Club. Vertical redwood boards form its exterior; living room has picture window; dining alcove features glass block wall. Designed to comply with FHA standards of construction, the Piedmont's electrical layout is approved by the National Adequate Wiring Bureau.

Let Us Plan Your House of Tomorrow

We are ready to help you with your building plans. Let us estimate your needs and assist you in selecting materials.

SEE US TODAY

OF TOMORROW

Insulating Supplies Now Available

Storm Sash
Storm Doors
Insulating Materials
Shingles (Wood, Fiber) 210 lb.
Nails - - - All varieties
Cement - - - Mortar
- - - Plaster - -

SMALL HOMES

L & H WOOD MFG. COMPANY

33119 Grand River

Phone 2350