Avis Jamison, City Treasurer

A very beautiful and solemn memorial service was held last Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Farmington Methodist Church for Don and Dean Conlman. Rev. Stone presided, and no less than forty-one comrades of the Veterans of Foreign Wars attended. When I saw the boys turn out in such force to help eulogize and commemorate to immortality two of their fallen comrades, I was very proud to belong to the Farmington Post of the V.F.W. I know the occasion and the memory of the aforementioned fallen comrades will always remain uppermost in our minds. Several of the charter members are around town that have avoided this year. The adjutant, Comrade Tom Tardy, will be on hand at the next meeting. Come early and see him.

Not very much has been said about our Military Hall which is not far off. Does everyone have tickets? If not, get in touch with James E. Tolman or William Carpenter at once. The orchestra is a well known Redford orchestra and the big night is Wednesday, the 22nd of this month. Well, only 10 days away! Let's go...
