

Classes Add To Sewing Skill

Classes designed to turn a so-sewer into an expert will begin Thursday, March 23, in Crowley's Livonia Mall sewing workshop.

Mrs. Barbara Tucker, sewing and fashion authority, will teach the limited enrollment, five-week class from 10 a.m. to 12 noon Thursdays.

"Many people have a knack for sewing yet lack the skills to carry out their ideas," Mrs. Tucker said.

"My class covering correct measurement, pattern size, seams, finishes, sleeve and collar setting and other basics is designed to get them started and help them finish a garment in class with beautiful results."

Mrs. Tucker also will have a designer course on the same Thursdays from 1 to 3 p.m. She said it is designed to help women with sewing experience learn more about advanced techniques of marking, underlining, designer finishing and use of their canvas.

Both courses cost $24 and may be charged on BankAmericard or Master Charge. Women interested may call the fabric department of Crowley's Livonia Mall store.

Registration Opens In Northwest YW

Registration opens Monday, March 20 in the Northwest Branch YWCA, 2540 Grand River, for a wide variety of classes and programs to be held during the spring term.

Designed to meet the interests of women, teens, youth and men, the YWCA program covers hobbies, social skills, and physical activities, as well as arts and crafts, swimming, dancing and educational opportunities.

Along with the hobby classes that have become standard, there are seminar-type sessions on black history, new white consciousness, alcohol addiction, drugs and preparation for retirement.

New this spring will be international folk dancing on Tuesday evenings, paper tote on Tuesday mornings and graphic arts on Thursday mornings.

Other subjects offered include volleyball, yoga, fencing, golf, tennis, decoupage, ceramics, interior design, aircraft ground school, guitar, driver education, creative stitchery, cooking, sculpturing, ballet, babysitting, creative crafts, yarncraft, powderpuff mechanics and self-defense for women.

Nursery service for pre-schoolers is available on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

A Saturday morning recreation program for boys and girls from six to 12 will begin the week of March 25. It includes varied activities as well as a swim class.

Swimming classes for adults as well as juniors will begin the week of March 20. The rest of the spring term begins the week of April 10.

Early registration is advised and further information can be obtained by calling the YWCA. The YWCA is a Torch Drive Agency.

American Family Is Topic

"How Much Do We Owe Our Children?" is the question to be considered by the Birmingham Temple Town Hall series at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 22.

Rabbi Mordecai Halpern of Congregation Beth Shalom will speak in the Birmingham Temple, 28811 West 12 Mile,

His talk will be part of a series, "A Woman for All Seasons."

He will consider how the American family is adapting to changes in technology, life style, education, economy and social structure.

On the question, the rabbi has written:

"No major sociological phenomenon happens in isolation. The very effects of technology, industry, ideas and instant communication which affect religion and every other institutional organism and entity have had massive effects and implications for the American family and its individual members."

Refreshments will be served preceding the talk. Tickets are $2.
