has spring! Or so we hope. At least there are insumerable unstatisfied signs of spring, if only it does not taked a quick turnabout. Robbin and mpuring dowes are quite the common sight instead of the unusual now, the Rouge creek has been overflowing its banks, and everywhere there are skipping boys and girls, and baseball games in the yeacant lot. Not to be overflowed is the terrible condition of subdivision roads, with residents forced to park the automobiles at some distance from home, not caring to fun the risk of getting stuck in the mud. New houses: and buildings of all kinds are springing by like mushrooms. And highe you noticed how the city reliatives are flocking out for the week end? Ah yes, the beautiful spring!

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Light came before the Commission, requesting permission to sell their property on Brookdale, as income property rather than as a private dwelling. Although the property is located in a Residence A District, it was remodeled and converted into apartments which have been rented under a special agreement with the City, due to the wartime bousing sbortage. The Commission referred the matter to civil counsel before taking any action.

FIRE DESTROYS GUINEA PIGS AND WHITE RATS

Several fire alarms have been turned in this week, and the department has been kept rather busy. The alarms proved to be grass fires, with one exception. On Monday morning the department was called to the Edmund Wolff residence at Flight Mile and Turk Road. An overheated stoye in one of the brooder houses; is believed to be responsible for the fire. It is jest mated that 5,000 guinea pigs and white rats perished in the fire. Wr. Wolff is engaged in the husness of raising these animals for use in the Parke-Davis lighoratories.

use in the Parke-Davis apportance.

Residents are asked to be very careful if they start any fires to burn off vacable tots or fields. It may be recalled that last spring the fire department was busy almost night and day responding to grass fire plantms. Please do not start a grass fire unless you can keep it inder control.
