FUNNY PAPER PARTY SOUVENIRS TO BE SHARED

The Sophomores, sponsors of the big Funny Paper party tomorrow night, are trying a new 'share and save' the decorations' project. Since collectors sought souvenirs of the party before they were finished even after the last dance the decorations will be auctioned to the highest bidder - the maximum bid being set at this time. This will prevent the individual pieces being ripped and ruined in the mad scramble to get one. All profits from the party will go to the Student Council. The class treasury will benefit in no way. It isn't a money-making scheme - only a fair way to dispose of the hand-drawn reproductions of favorite comic characters. Advisors - Mr. Seel, supervisor of tickets; Mr. Smith, floor show; Miss Abbott, publicity and Miss Damski, decorations and refreshments - have been working quite intently to make this a good party. Miss Damski, chairman, has asked special support in this venture.

RECENT NOVEL CARRIES ONE TO MIDDLE AGES

The Black Rose, a tale of love and adventure, whisks you back into the Middle Ages directly after the Crusades. For many engaging hours you live in Cathay, fabulous empire of the Mongols. Walter, by Gurnie left turbulent England to find a respectable name and fortune. Leaving behind lovely Euphonia, who had decided to marry another, he and his best friend, Tristram Griffen traveled east along the spice trails leading into the Orient of Kubla Khan. Alhemis, powerful merchant of Antioch, sent them on a caravan to meet Khan's great general, Baxan of the Hundred Eyes. With them, as pretexts for the Khan up hope and beauties, including Maryep, daughter of an Eng-

Wanted: A Smooth Track

Farmington High the past few years has had quite outstanding and successful track teams. As you know, last year the Palom spectators won the Regional meet at Ypsilanti by a large margin. This year the team also has proved itself worthy of the good name of our school. With the growing success of the teams a greater popularity for the sport by students and townspeople has developed. In view of this, it is only right that an adequate place to run is provided. The boys are now running on a sod track around the football field. The corners are severe and treacherous, especially on damp days when the grass is wet. The space between the baseball backstop and the running lanes is too narrow to allow free sprints at the finish because of the danger of cutting someone off or being spiked. Times are slowed down considerably since the present footing is not the best. A hard packed, smooth cinder track is sorely needed and very enthusiastically wanted by all those participating and interested in this ever growing sport. H.T.

Work: For The Day Is Coming

When you glance at the calendar these days you notice with a shock of surprise that time has hurried on, as usual. Without warning May has arrived and with it come those hectic, happy days which seem to belong exclusively to the seniors. "What's next on the agenda?" you ask. Well - take a look. Coming up are the Junior-Senior Banquet, Senior Spring-Out, Honors Assembly, Baccalaureate and Commencement!

Do the lower classmen grumble and moan because the seniors have all the luck? When asked they reply, "I don't mind. This'll be my last year; and besides, I'll be a senior myself someday." Instead, the faculty and students are working hard to give the seniors a memorable send-off. The Crusader and a Grecian woman. Both Walter and Tristram fell in love with her and helped her escape Bayhan. Later Walter and she met again and married, but in trying to get Maryann to make her way across half the globe. After the months she had spent in the hope to give him up, he turned to his first love, Euphonia. M.H.

HONOR AWARDS PRESENTED AT SPRING CONCERT

Last Friday evening, May 10, the music students of Farmington High School presented their annual concert in the High School Gymnasium. The program was opened by the Band playing the Star Spangled Banner, followed by David Carley, who gave the invocation. The Girls' Glee Club, directed by Miss Phyllis Gardner, then sang twelve selections accompanied by June Toth and Eileen Whitehead.

After a five-minute intermission the band, directed by Mr. Lloyd Smith, Jr., gave their half of the concert. To add a little variety to the program different band students conducted several compositions. Awards were given to Bill Conroy for "outstanding band member of the year" and to the trombone section, headed by Jerry Kosmenschky, for the "biggest improvement during the year." The winner of the concert was Alvin Garchow. Dancers in bright Spanish costumes, danced to the Carola and Nina.

After the concert the participants and the audience danced to the smooth music of Bill Conroy and his orchestra. M.B.
