WEST POINT PARK

By
MISS L. A. AULT

Miss Ina Mae Tallman visited with Mrs. Leon Willoughby in Detroit one day early in the week. Mrs. Marvin Addis, Mrs. Austin Ault, Mrs. M. E. Ault and Miss Ault all were all in Wayne last Monday night attending a shower for Andrea Charlette, the new baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Commiri.

Leonard Broquet from near Northville, was calling in West Point Park the first of the week. Clinton Ault and son, Wayne, were visitors in Plymouth Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooley from Hazel Park were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault last Monday.

Mrs. Clyde Buckingham was a visitor in downtown Detroit the first of the week.

Mrs. E. W. Stange visited with her sister-in-law in Detroit Saturday.

Dolores Ault was among Detroit shoppers Saturday.

Mrs. Emerson Ault was an all-day visitor Friday at the home of her brother, Carl Worland, in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidellink have been entertaining Mrs. Sidellink's sister and husband from Flint for a few days. Their daughter and husband from Pontiac were their guests also Sunday.

Ridge Broquet, from Detroit, called at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ault Sunday.

"Chuck" Hoff and Harold McVicar enjoyed another successful fishing excursion Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Muir have returned from a week's vacation trip in northern Michigan.

Mrs. Ralph Voorhees and son, Don, also Mrs. Austin Ault are leaving this Monday for a week's vacation trip to Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McVicar are visiting relatives in Bay City this Monday.

As a result of a fall, sustained at the home of her son, Carl Berland, in Detroit, Mrs. Margaret Martin has been in a most serious condition. Her children were all called to her bedside last Thursday night. However, she has now rallied and since no bones were broken, it is believed she will recover soon from the shock of her accident.

Mrs. J. W. Ault had a serious attack last week, but is now resting more comfortably again.

F. Broquet visited his daughter, Mrs. Owen Stevens, in the Women's Hospital, Detroit, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Stevens is convalescing from a major operation.

The Norman Kauranens held a welter roast for their own young folks and friends from the city Saturday evening.

Robert M. Hunter and his mother visited relatives on Detroit's East Side Sunday evening.

The Piersen School Scouters Club which journeyed to "Meet the Masses" in Detroit a few weeks ago had a broadcast of their performance last Monday. Among the local women whose voices were heard over the air were Mrs. Howard Middlewood, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Ault and Mrs. Amanda Heichman. Mrs. Heichman was presented with flowers and proclaimed "Lady of the Day."

Herman Schult arrived home from Florida the first of last week. He will be busy in this section two months before returning to his employment in the South. His family plans to accompany him and spend the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Harold Stevin and children from Akron, O., are spending a week with relatives in this vicinity.

Piereson School held its annual picnic last Wednesday and came to a final close Friday when pupils were called to the school to receive report cards and promotion

SPORT HIGHLIGHTS

(By Bill Conroy)

Climaxing several weeks of planning, Junior Fendt and Edwin Her left early Monday for Adrian, Michigan, on horseback where they will visit May's Riding Stable. May recently moved her stable to Adrian from her previous location on Eight Mile Road. The trip of approximately 50 miles will take about a day and a half and the boys will spend three days around Adrian.

"I'm sorry, but we are all filled up" seems to be the main phrase in Mayor Deles Hamilton's conversation these days as he answers to the many requests for league reservations for the future bowling season. Yes, it's too late to get your league into the new alleys for it was announced a week ago that the week day nights are filled to capacity.

Open bowling on Saturdays and Sundays will give the pinmen a chance to get in line for the coming week and also give the people of the town an opportunity to test their skill.

According to the Michigan Department of Conservation they will issue commercial fishing licenses at half price, but there's a catch to it — the licenses are good for only half a year.

An amendment to the licensing law at the 1945 session of the Legislature shifted the license period from a fiscal year (ending June 30) to a calendar year basis, leaving a six month gap from July 1 to December 31, 1946. The half-price licenses cover this change-over period.
