CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Marlon, 29335 Beatrice, have left for a two week stay with relatives in St.
Louis.

The Bollito family of Waldron Avenue arrived home on Sunday after a ten day visit around the Soo district. They were quite surprised to find that the hottest day in July here had been their coldest, with fires going night and morning. The four hundred mile drive home Sunday was particularly enjoyed, with the weather and country equally beautiful, to say nothing of the crate of blueberries they picked en route home.
Mrs. Bollito says the berries were like a thick carpet, and it was impossible to avoid treading on them. With the present price of fruit it made a profitable ride, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Samuelson of Seminole Avenue are home again after a visit in Missouri.
Sharon Wilcox of Angling Road spent the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. Hodges, at Crooked Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doerfer were guests of honor at a farewell party on Wednesday evening at the Lutheran Church in Clarenceville.

Mr. Doerfer has taught at the Lutheran School for more than six years. He and his wife are extremely popular and highly estimated. He has been transferred to a Chicago school where he will start this fall. The party was given by the school P.T.A. and the couple was presented with a purse of money, with the good wishes of their many friends in this community.

The Parents Club, Eight Mile Road, had a household paper demonstration Wednesday. These demonstrations are showing some remarkable new products.

Mrs. Cor Scanlon is home again from a stay in Henry Ford Hospital where she was taken, suffering from acute anemia. She has made rapid progress after receiving six transfusions, and has gained five pounds a weight.

Mrs. Page and family of West Seven Mile Road spent a pleasant day at Belle Isle last Wednesday.
Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barclay, were weekendng at Stock bridge, Michigan.

Mrs. Balfour of Albuquerque, New Mexico, concluded her visit here when she left for home last Friday.

Friday, Op Thursday she was the welcome guest at the Sinclair home on Randall.

Frank Kane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kane of Parkville, arrived home in the small hours of July 9, and informed his parents that he was home for good, having received his Navy discharge some weeks before he expected. Frank has been on overseas duty for most of the year in the Japan and China area, and is very glad to be home again.

The Chris Heck family of Pershing had held their annual reunion last week end. Sixty members of the family were present.
Included were Mr. and Mrs.
Howard Birchler from Colorado, and Mrs. Birchler of Kalamazoo.
Others, word from the Detroit area.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopper (Jean Hartenstein) have purchased the Coleman home on Weyher, and are already living there. Arthur, Coleman and family took up their residence in Jackson, Michigan, a few days ago.

Lee Durham of Inkster Road attended the funeral of his father at Vassar, on Friday. The elder Mr. Durham was fatally injured in an automobile accident and died in the hospital four days later.

The Glen Kennedys of Angage were in the Irish Hills on Sunday, attending the Betsy family reunion at Clark Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Edmonds have purchased a home on Middlebelt near Nine Mile Road, and are now living there. They have arrived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pollet of Angling Road.

John Roth is making an extended stay with his daughter, Mrs. J.
Bredman and family of Houghton.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Bredman were pleasantly surprised a week ago Saturday when old friends came in during the evening, bringing pot luck lunch.
Wifery were seated in the outdoor fireplace, and coffee, ice cream and cake were enjoyed by all. Among the callers were Mrs.
Myra Slack, Mrs. Helen Cronk of Kalamazoo, Detroit, Mrs.
Sister Brown of Patton Avenue, Mrs. Margaret Kink and sons, Mr. and Mrs. William Epley and daughter, Jeanie of Allen Park.
This was also in the nature of a going away party for the Epleys, who are leaving soon for North Carolina. Songs were sung and the Epleys showered with the good luck wishes of their friends.
Later in the evening Bob Berman of Royal Oak joined the party for midnight coffee.

Among the guests last week end at the Breneman home on Brenwood Avenue were Mr. and Mrs.
William Heckroth and twin sons, Larry and Garry of Unionville, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ely of Elkton, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Durham Diebel of Pigeon, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thatt of Elkton, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Knechtel and son Jimmy and baby Lynn, Mrs.
Elvinda Rathke, all of Elkton, Mrs. and Mrs. Howard Carlin and son, Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cagan of Detroit, and Mrs. Nellie Bredman and daughter, Delores of Saginaw. These guests also attended the wedding of Marie Kirk to Edwin Ely, which took place at Coronado Baptist Church on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds and family of St. Francis with Victor Stevens, spent a pleasant Sunday picnicking and swimming at Wal-ed Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hawley of Angling Road and Mr. and Mrs.

Farmington Kwanians joined with members of the Southfield Kwanian Club last week for an inter-club meeting, arranged by Joq Himelreich and Reno Carter, at Southfield.

A most interesting and entertaining program was provided, with main speaker being the new Father Superior of Duns Scotus College. He was an Army Chaplain, and served on an Army transport, and his talk was based on his experiences.

The Kwanian Club was the Underprivileged Children was amply benefited with the Sheriffs of both Clubs presiding, and the usual hilarity and joviality that accompanies such proceedings.

On Tuesday, August 6, the Farmington Kwanian Club will hold a joint meeting with the Plymouth Kwanian Club at the Mayflower Hotel, Plymouth, to be followed by softball and other outdoor activities, at Riverbank.

It is hoped all Farmington Kwanians will be on hand.

H. Stevens of St. Francis Road met for dinner downtown on Friday night, after which the ladies went to a show, while their husbands played tournament bridge at the Empire Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. MacMillan of Denby Road entertained a number of guests on Saturday at cards. Guests were Mr. and Mrs.
A. Schram, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Shea and Mrs.
Lahli.

Elly McEwell of Windsor, Canada, was the week end guest of Annamarie Stevens of St. Francis Road, and Mary Jane Jarman of Detroit. During their vacation at Island Lake they were joined on Saturday by Harold Stevens of St. Francis Road, and Larry Gilo of Detroit. All returned on Sunday to the Stevens home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Davis of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaufmann Jr. of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, with Mr. and Mrs. Sutten of Ohio, reported to the Stevens on Sunday that their vacation at Manitoulin Island, Canada, was greatly enjoyed for the first week, but owing to confusion, their reservations at the camp had been cancelled for the second week.

Unable to find other accommodations, Victor Stevens returned to Ohio with his sister and family.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaufmann, for a week's visit.

Judy Golden of Doering Road was hostess on Sunday to a party of eleven young folks, who helped celebrate Judy's eighth birthday.
The festivity was to be held in Lola Valley Park, but unfortunately they were rained out, and so they returned to the Golden home where they enjoyed themselves just as much as they would have at the park.

The Orville Vaders of St. Francis Road are on their way home from California where Mr. Vader went on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams who have been staying at the Woodcox home on Doering Avenue are now living in their own home on MacArthur Road. Purchasing the house early this year, they have almost completely remodeled the interior with modern improvements.
