Childrens Bible Hour Staff To Appear At Baptist Church

Members of the congregation of the local Baptist Church invite interested friends of Farmington to see and hear the staff of the Children's Bible Hour, Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. This will be a unified service, sponsored by the church and Sunday School combined, in a great Rally and Promotion Day event. The Children's Bible Hour group, well-known for their popular Saturday children's broadcasts, will consist of Three Nieces, Charlotte, pianist Phil Garvin, and Uncle Bill. The entire program, episodes of promotion by the local school staff, will be in the hands of the visiting group. This service should be a delightful occasion for all who listen to the staff of the Children's Bible Hour, Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. ## CHARLES TRICKEY MARRIED TO HOWELL GIRL

A very pretty wedding took place in the Howell Methodist Church on Saturday evening, at eight o'clock when Rev. Paul Thorpe officiated in marriage, with the double ring service, Miss Betty Craven, only child of Mrs. Clydia

Craven and Charles Trickey, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Sr., of Novi. The church was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and tint candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. J. B. Van Epps of Osgood. She wore a white satin gown, with sweetheart neckline, double puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and sweeping train. She wore white satin muffs, and carried a bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums and white roses, centered with an orchid. Her veil of illusion was held in place with a tiara of pearls and crystals.

Next in honor was the sister of the groom, Miss Loree Trickey. She was gown in aqua tulle with an overdress of net, and carried an arm bouquet of pink baby chrysanthemums and orchid chrysanthemums, tied with pink ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Elaine Green of Howell and Francis Craven, a cousin of the bride from Monroe, La., wearing pink tulle and net, and the latter peach colored lace, each carrying arm bouquets of pink and orchid chrysanthemums, tied with pink ribbon and streamers. All of the attendants wore matching flowers in their hair.

The two little flower girls, Rose Alma Bunn of Howell and Judith Ann Craven of Monroe, cousin of the bride, were dressed in formal of blue and pink satin with an overdress of matching net.

William MacDermald Jr., of Novi was best man, and ushers were Clarence Craven, an uncle of the bride, John Craven, her cousin, Robert Blaess, a cousin of the groom's, Harold Drouillard and Kenneth Rippey of Detroit.

The young couple left for work's stay at Carls, Michigan, in the Upper Peninsula. For going away the bride wore a brown two-piece suit with brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet upon their return they will live in a newly purchased and furnished home at Wolverine Lake.

Methodists Reopen Church School

Reopening day at the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church of Farmington will be Sunday, September 22. A special program of promotions and awards is being arranged. Regularly enrolled students are expected to bring their parents, and an invitation is extended to newcomers to attend the program, which begins at 10 a.m.

Plans for the new school year, as formulated at the meeting of the Board of Education on August 29, will be outlined by Alfred G. Jones, Church School superintendent. Group singing will be conducted by D. Gerald Domes, new choral director for the Sunday School, and the members of the teaching staff will be introduced.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA

Mrs. Fred Wendlandt is visiting at Grant, Taft, Oregon, with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Wendlandt, formerly in this community. Mr. and Mrs. John Pallone of Inkster entertained on Sunday a cousin of Mr. Pallone's, in this country on an extended visit from Belfast, Ireland.

Miss June Pallone went shopping in Detroit last week for attire for her forthcoming wedding in October. The entire bridal-party-to-be spent Sunday at the ball game.

The Sparthouts had as their guest Mr. Sparthout's sister-in-law from Toledo, and a nephew, recently returned from Japan.

The Petermarks of 12 Mile Road are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a new little daughter.

Mrs. Munley Kelly's sister, Mrs. Monte DeZonde, R.N., of Montreal, visited with Mrs. Kelly on her way to the West coast on an extended vacation.

The Jensen's of Five Points entertained at open house in honor of their son, Earl, of the U.S. Marine, who is home on leave. Earl and Jack Breneman, also of the Marines, made their appearance at school on opening day, much to the delight of the entire student body. These lads have been mighty popular young men with all of the school children the past few years.

The Girl Scout leaders and committee people met at the home of Mrs. Koller on Eight Mile Road to make plans for the coming season. Mrs. Hartenstein and Mrs. Moore became identified with the group on that evening. If anyone feels at all like helping, you will be more than welcome. This correspondent will welcome any inquiries.

One way to meet all the ladies of the community you haven't seen for a long time is to take your child to school the first morning of registration. Home is such a quiet place after vacation. Hope the youngsters haven't forgotten all they've learned after more than three months away from school.

The Leonard Monette family of Ontario returned from vacationing in Alpena and the surrounding communities.

The Boy Scouts of CL 2 resumed their regular meetings on Tuesday evening.

We well know our little community is growing by leaps and bounds by the increased enrollment in the grades and high school.
