ARDITH BREDAH IS BRIDE OF JAMES COLLINS

A double ring ceremony in Mary Sabina chapel, Central Methodist Church, Lansing, Saturday afternoon, united Miss Ardith Elaine Bredahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tindale of Marston, and James H. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins of Shaw Street, Farmington. Dr. D. Stanley Coors performed the service before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lawrence Bredahl of Kalamazoo. She wore a gown of taffeta fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves and an overskirt of point d'esprit and ruffles at the hemline. Her fingertip veil of net fell from a tiara of deep pink roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Miss Marjorie Collins, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and Miss Jeanne Wilson of Detroit, bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in white jersey with full net skirts. The gowns were styled with sweetheart necklines, cap sleeves and ruffles at the hemline of the skirts. Each wore long white gloves and picture hats of white net. The maid of honor carried an arm bouquet of deep lavender gladioli and the bridesmaid one of lavender tipped ivory gladioli.

Attender D. Bredahl, brother of the bride, was a groomsman and ushers were Warren Bredahl, brother of the bride, and Edward Rembeck of Dearborn. Music for the service was played on the organ by Wendell Westcott and sung by Miss Norma Lou Gregg.

Miss Tindale chose a blue flowered print dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom wore a two-piece frock of navy blue and white print with navy accessories and each had a corsage of pink roses and stephanotis given in the tea room of the church. Hostesses were sisters of the bride, Mrs. Homer Taylor and Mrs. Clyde Jeffers, assisted by Miss Katherine Pung of Lansing and Miss Thelma Collins, sister of the groom.

The couple will make their home at 712 Gordon Street, when they return to Lansing September 22. The bridegroom will attend Michigan State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Westland of Orchard Lake Road were recently guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Colvin of New York, and they went on a thrilling deep sea fishing trip with Capt. Sam Good of the Helen G.

Mr. Westland pulled in an 80-pound Blue Marlin, of which he was very proud, and Mr. Colvin caught a 77-pound fish of the same species. Mrs. Westland and Mrs. Colvin watched the fish hooked and bobbed, a thrill in itself.

The Marlins were caught off the coast of Brail, New Jersey, and they were considered by Capt. Good as the season's prize catch record for his boat.
