CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE FARM. 1124-M

Mrs. Barnes' troop of Girl Scouts and their leaders held their Halloween Party on Monday night at Edgewood School. The parade planned and carried out the scheme of things.

Master Marvin Mortens of Robinson is confined to University Hospital at Ann Arbor for observation. We all hope Marvin will soon be back home.

The Moores of Negaunee were feted at open house in their home. A large gathering of friends and relatives joined in the celebration.

Mrs. George Haskell of Negaunee has her mother from Bay City as her guest this week.

Frank Cashman was among those lucky people who were able to secure tickets for the U. of M. Illinois game Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schenck and little son, Kenny, of Traverse City are visiting with Mrs. Ray Mead prior to their leaving for Florida for the winter.

Mrs. Nicholas Hsuanmaki and Mrs. Henry Robertson are holding Bible Classes for the neighborhood children adjacent to Edgewood School.

We are glad to report Mr. Wurtzbacher's return to business following a recent illness.

The Wurtzbacher Jrs. of Long Avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a new little son.

Halloween parties are being held in great numbers this year. Mrs. Willard Wild entertained her Den of Cubs on Tuesday evening and CL 2 Boy Scouts held their party at the High School. Wednesday evening the High School was alive with grade room parties, included among them Mr. Mann's 8th graders.

Laura Jean Scheunsky of Interster Road entertained the members of the Freshman groups at a Halloween party on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Albert Brown of Sbiawass, Regent of Farmington D of R, is busy attending initiation and installations of neighboring circles, having attended three in the past week.

The Girl Scouts attended service in the body at the Methodist Church and our Lady of Sorrows Church on Sunday, as fitting entry into activities for Girl Scout week.

The Girl Scout Committee and leaders will meet on Monday next week at 7:30 p.m. at the High School.

Rep. George A. Dondero was present in Clarenceville on Friday evening at Central School under the auspices of the Sentry Club of Seven Mile Road.

Central School has gone all out for Halloween this year as far as decorations are concerned. Bats, cobwebs, black cats on fenceposts, pumpkins, etc. are much in evidence. A parade of the costumed folks on the playground is planned for Thursday. Even the little second grader with the broken vertebrae and with a cast about his neck, which he insists he will have to wear only until Christmas, will be among them. In taking a ride at Franklin way Sunday we saw so many youngsters in high trees for walnuts, couldn't help but think of that little fellow. The old mill at Franklin was doing a hand office business and it was impossible to find a place to park. Another reason we can be thankful we live in Michigan — it's apple cider season, and cider is just about the best drink ever.

Wonder how many homes are in such an uproar as ours? Have you outfits and a different one for each party this week, and we have only one girl.

The Farmington - Clarenceville gridiron match last Friday was the best attended function I've attended in these parts for a long time, and although our boys lost, they played their hearts out. The student body, the band and the cheer leaders did their best to cheer the boys along. Mr. Mann proved he couldn't be stumped because the Band uniforms were not ready, and he held the between-half entertainment in the Senior caps and gowns. The skit was Clarenceville's College of Musical Knowledge.

The Journalism Class under the able supervision of Mr. MacArthur, who are doing such a good job with "The Clipper" this year, gave a dance Friday evening, at which time the Grand Contestants were chosen. Ben Young, a Senior, was chosen as Darling, and her court consisted of Lutey MacPaige, Joan Ann Ryan, Shirley Bondy and Donna Purcell.

Dr. Clayton Hillis Opens New Offices

Dr. Clayton W. Hillis announces the opening of chiropractic offices at 28675 Grand River Avenue. He is holding regular office hours daily.

Dr. Hillis has been practicing for twenty years, and before coming to Farmington he was located in Highland Park.

The Halloween party sponsored by the Mothers Club, which was held at the school on Friday evening was a great success according to reports. About 140 children enjoyed games, prizes given, and the doughnuts and pop which were served. Prizes were given for the funniest and best costumes worn by the junior and senior groups as well as smaller girls and boys, and a prize was given to all be girls.

Mr. and Mrs. William St. Clair (Dorcas Shirliff) who are living in Highland have the foundation completed for their new home on Twelve Mile Road.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lien of Twelve Mile Road entertained guests from Detroit on Sunday.

Don't forget the W.S.C.S. bazaar which is to be held at the L.O.O.F. Hall on November 6 with a chop suey lunch at 11:30.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mitchell attended a Masonic birthday dinner at Highland Park on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Bernice Harrowood of Novi Road will hold a Stanley Brush demonstration at her home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Frazer Staman was a Lansing visitor on Tuesday, accompanying Mrs. Nettie Stuart home.

A number of Rebekah ladies quitted at the hall last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Henning were entertained at the Sea Food Centre on Friday evening.

Mrs. Jett Hamilton is entertaining her sister-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Bulgess of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Effie Root has been very ill at her home but is on the gain.

The supper and auction given by the Rebekahs and Oddfellows was well attended. All report a good meal and lots of fun. The accurate total of proceeds is not yet available, but it is estimated in the neighborhood of $150.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Zesson and Mrs. George Waite accompanied the Howard Thayers of Farmington to the Elmore Rutledge of Franklin Hills on Saturday evening, where they celebrated Mrs. Thayer's birthday. The evening was spent seeing moving pictures and visiting, after which a sumptuous lunch was served by the hostess, and they departed at one o'clock reporting a pleasant evening spent.

The George Hines are entertaining their brother-in-law from California.

Mr. Earl Ward had an emergency operation on Friday evening for appendicitis, at Sessions Hospital. She is reported to be in fair condition.

Jimmy Walden of Twelve Mile Road, who has been in service for some time, and spent most of it in Japan, called his mother one day last week, letting her know that he was in the States, and would be home soon. Welcome back, Jimmy.

A number from here attended the supper, dance and installation of officers of the Eastern Star at Watled Lake on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Fern Rawley and brother, who is visiting her, were week end visitors at South Haven.

RED ROSES SAY "I LOVE YOU"

National Flower week is being celebrated this year during the week of November 3-10. This week has been set aside as a time in which to pay tribute to flowers and what they mean in our everyday lives.

SPORT HIGHLIGHTS

These were mighty queer looking bowlers that invaded Farmington Recreation Tuesday night, and they might have been anyone from Farmer Jones to Aunt Matilda — but actually they were only the regular bowling teams, all dressed up for Halloween.

Everyone had a wonderful time, and enough laughs to tide over many a long, gloomy day.

In the Farmington Shop Bowling League, standings of October 25 are as follows:

High Games, Slarto Machine & Tool Co., 2639.
High Three Games, R. Rozenboom, 604.
High Single Game, T. Jawor, 215.
High Team Single, Carbide Cut.

ting Tool Industries, 556.
Team standings are as follows:

Team	W	L
Western Tool & Die Co.	24	8
Bullard Gage Co.	24	8
Slarto Machine & Tool	21	11
Zimmer & Lightbody	2	16
Country Chemical Co.	17	15
Kenner Tool Company	18	14
Jorgensen Tool & Gage	19	13
Farmington Gage & Tool	19	13
Arrowsmith Tool & Die	15	17
Zimmer & Lightbody	14	18
Carbide Cutting Tool	14	18
Michigan Seamless Tube	11	21
R. & D. Tool Co.	12	20
L. & H. Wood Mfg. Co.	10	22
Novels Motor Sales	8	24

High honors for a single game at Farmington Recreation are now held by Arthur Lamb, with a score of 266. Lamb recently topped the high score of 265, held by Doris Nalby of Northville.

A Big Vote of Confidence for Senator Vandenberg

We believe that the re-election of Senator Vandenberg presents a challenge to the people of Michigan. The Senator has taken the voice of our State into the highest councils of domestic affairs and into the peace deliberations of the world. He has given our State a prominence and an influence in world events that is unequalled in our history. His re-election becomes a matter of State pride.

We are proud of Arthur H. Vandenberg. We are proud that he comes from Michigan. He should be re-elected to the U. S. Senate with an extra big vote of confidence.

And remember this — no matter how heavy his responsibilities around the world, he has never failed you and our home State when Michigan interests have been at stake in Washington.

Let's get out and vote on Nov. 5. Let's "tell the world" that we support our Senior Senator from Michigan.

This message is published in behalf of 100,000 citizens from all 35 Counties of Michigan who placed Senator Vandenberg in nomination in June.
