WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT

TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, from near the Children's Home, were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault last Tuesday.

Miss Arbutus Sherman from near Plymouth was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Murr.

Miss Doris Voorhees from Detroit was the week end guest of Mrs. Clinton Ault.

Mrs. Paul Smith, from Detroit, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol of Shady Side Avenue, Friday evening.

Mrs. Walter Dixon, from Britton Road, and a neighbor friend, Mrs. G. Furman, spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ault.

Mrs. Flossie Smith, from Ionia, arrived Friday evening to spend a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Walter Rehahn.

Mrs. John Varhol was quite ill for a few days last week.

Mrs. Delberty, of Shady Side Avenue has been on the sick list for several days.

Miss Marjetta Schult, Shady Side Avenue, was ill all of last week and unable to be at her place of employment.

Mrs. Edward Imonen, of Hubbard Avenue pleasantly entertained a group of Detroit friends at luncheon Wednesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Armstrong spent the latter half of the week visiting relatives in northern Michigan.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Carter have received word of their safe arrival in Idaho, where they expect to spend the winter visiting with Mr. Carter's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser of Huntington Woods, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sidelinker entertained Mrs. Sidelinker's sister and husband from Flint over the week end.

Mrs. Edward Kochanek of Detroit was in West Point Park last Tuesday and calling on a number of her old friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Don Gladfelter of Fleming Avenue has arrived home from the hospital with her new baby son, Eric Wayne, born October 27.

The Dohertys on Shady Side Avenue entertained their son and family from Ann Arbor Sunday.

Mrs. Fusk of Shady Side Avenue is mourning the recent death of her father. Mrs. Fusk has also been quite ill for a week.

Stanley Shilling is again ill. Austin Ault was quite ill for a few days last week.

West Point Park boys and girls excepting those attending Farmington High, all had a holiday last Friday while the teachers attended a convention.

Ronald Kilne, from over on Parker, but with many friends in the Neighborhood Church section, has been quite ill for a week.

The lunch program is being re-established in Pierson School.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault, accompanied by Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, visited in Plymouth Friday.

A tiny pebble from one of our roads out a gash in young Richard Grant's head last Wednesday and it was necessary for him to receive medical attention.

Hobbie and Johnny, young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Imonen, Hubbard Ave, have both been ill with severe colds.

Mrs. Edward Imonen entertained several of her Detroit friends at luncheon last Wednesday.

The hunting season is taking its usual toll in house cats and several valued pets have already suffered. However, in one instance the wrong kind of kitty was overtaken by one of our young hunters causing him great embarrassment.

Roadside drivers have been reporting being molested by window-peepers. This particular form of aggravation has, of late years, been the usual accompaniment of the Halloween season. Some residents are threatening to keep shot-guns handy.

A large number of workers were called to fight a grass fire originating in the district north of Seven Mile and near the outskirts of the Folger Subdivision last Thursday.

The arrival of the fire department put everything under control.

Mrs. William Sherman entertained the ladies of her card club at her home on Mayfield Avenue Wednesday evening of last week.

First prize, a handsome bath towel, was awarded Mrs. Clinton Ault.

Mrs. Ault was chosen to deliver a reading as the group sat at the lunch table and her rendering was much appreciated.

At the home of Mrs. Imogene Dixon, on Farmington Road, Mrs. Joy Varhol entertained about twenty of her young friends Saturday night. Arrangements were in keeping with the Halloween season. The young folks report a lot of fun and an abundance of appetizing food besides.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kauranen entertained a large group of their friends at their home on Mayfield Avenue Saturday night. All was in keeping with the Halloween season, but recognition was taken of Mrs. Kauranen's birthday, which had taken place a few days previously. A gay, good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ackerson, of Hubbard Avenue entertained a group of friends, relatives and neighbors in Halloween fashion Saturday night.

Sunday, October 27th, was one of the finest days of the season. Consequently, those boys who labor on the golf links vacations and week ends during the warm weather were delighted at the opportunity to earn some more spending money. But at the Neighborhood Bible School it was Rally Day and the boys were greatly missed. Two brothers had sent their mother and baby sister to take their places and the remarks were made: "Pity the others, too, couldn't have sent representatives."

"Can we count them?" piped up a small voice and everyone looked toward the door. There in grave array were Colonel, Bo, Dee-Dee and as many dogs as there were boys absent. It was a regrettable fact that the teachers declined to write their names on the roll, even though some barked furiously while the school rose to sing "When the Roll is Called Up—You'll Be There."

Sandra is a kindergarten this year. The great thrill of her first days in school came from learning how many boys and girls near her own age lived in the same block. She could hardly wait until lunch was over to get out with her new playmates. Soon she was being daily observed trotting up and down the street carrying her dad-dy's duffle bag so well-filled that it fairly dragged the ground. Finally a curious neighbor ventured to question the child. In a matter of seconds the answer came, "My dollies are so heavy I can't carry them unless I put them all in the bag together."

The William Shermans were calling on their son, Jack and his family in Detroit Saturday evening. Also, upon Sunday, they visited friends in Bay City.

A feature of the informal Sunday evening service in the Neighborhood Church was the rendering of a reading "No Room in Heaven" by Mrs. Joseph Sidelinker.

Walled Lake Farm Group Studies Apple Packing

Walled Lake Farm Bureau Group No. 16 met Oct. 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shepard with 27 members and 12 guests present.

The meeting was called to order by our new Chairman, George Campbell who was capably filled the post of our previous Chairman, Harold Shepard.

Highlights of the meeting were discussions on Bangs Disease and the Grading and Packing of Apples. The discussions were led by Arthur Green and were very interesting.

The group presented Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shepard with a gift for organizing this group.

Mrs. Edna Winterhalter was to elect one of our Ladies to the Women's Auxiliary of the Farm Bureau. Mrs. Edwin Borge was elected.

Singing was led by our new Music Leader, Mona Smith.

MEXICAN DISPLAY MAY BE SEEN IN THE LIBRARY

An exceptionally interesting arrangement of Mexican crafts is now on display in the special display case in the Farmington High School Library. The display will be in the case until Friday of this week.

Articles in the display are owned by Miss Sheppard, seventh and eighth grade science teacher, who collected them last year when she was visiting Mexico.

On display are Mexican post cards, silver jewelry including a hand made filigree bracelet from Monterrey, a heavy silver bracelet with Aztec temple design from Chihuahua, leather wallet with Aztec calendar design on front, hand woven serape, hand painted tray, hand carved letter opener with a bone handle, a hand knitted sweater which Miss Sheppard sometimes wears, and a hand embroidered blouse.

New Physical Test To Be Given FHS Boys

Coach Robert Hutton is going to find out what the average high school boy is made of. Using the West Point system, Farmington is to match its skill with Glenn Davis, all-American halfback at West Point, who set the average there. The test will include vertical jump, to find out how far in the air the boys can jump; the bar vault, using one arm; dodge run, around hurdles put in the "darned" places; sit-ups; dips; rope climbing; chins and the softball throw.

State Funds
Overall state debt has been reduced more than 23 per cent in recent years. State and local governments have accumulated and invested more than $5,000,000,000 in surplus funds. Unemployment compensation reserves by the end of the year totaled more than $5,000,000,000.
