Midwest Collie Club To Have Annual Show Peter Hurd of Farmington, along with dog fanciers from all over the country, will show dogs in the Midwest Collie Club annual Specialty Show to be held at Hackatt Field House, Third Avenue, Highland Park, on Sunday, November 10. It is expected that approximately 100 "fanciers in the rough" will be entered.
Clarence Aldriches Purchase Florida Home Due to the scarcity of homes and the high rent in Miami the past winter, Clarence and Mrs. Aldrich purchased a home in beautiful Miami Shores last March before returning to Farmington, and they are mighty glad they have a permanent place to live. They have received reports that rents are now up 25 to 50 per cent over those of last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich will leave for Florida on November 1, and hope to stay until April. A son, Harold, will look after the nursery business during their absence.
Children To Take Part In Lutheran Rally The children of St. Paul's Lutheran School took part in a Lutheran rally at the State Fair grounds on Sunday afternoon at 10 p.m. A chorus of over 100 voices was heard, made up of children of Lutheran Christian day schools. There was also a mass mixed chorus of adult voices. Chief feature of the program was an inspiring address by Dr. Walter A. Maier, well known speaker on the International Lutheran Hour broadcast every Sunday.
MORGAN HORSE BREEDERS FORM NEW ASSOCIATION Milo F. Maas of Farmington has been elected treasurer of the newly organized Great Lakes Morgan Horse Association. Other officers are C. Fred Austin, president; Gerald F. Taft, vice-president and E. K. Runin, secretary. On the Board of Directors are St. Clair Hamlin of South Lyon, Dr. A. G. Ruthven of Ann Arbor and Donald Gates, F. C. Beran and Milo F. Dunn, all from Plymouth. The purpose of this newly formed Association is to promote a greater interest in the training and showing of the Morgan horse. The Association feels that the three innate characteristics of the Morgan - in intelligence, docility and sturdiness - should warrant representation of this breed in all horse shows.
