The Center Awards

Free Theatre Tickets.

The Center, Farmington's furniture store, announces that lucky folks who find their names in their advertisement appearing each week in the Enterprise, will be given two free tickets to the Civic Theatre.

Watch for your name to appear — If you do not find it there this week, perhaps you will be the lucky winner next week — here is a splendid opportunity to keep up-to-date on the new pictures as they come to the Civic, and it won't cost you a cent.

CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE FARM, 1124-M

Mr. George Holmes, of St. Francis has this to say — he thought so much of our district he registered his trotting horse under the name of Farmington Jim.

The midyear exams will have all the school kids cramming and talking to themselves and they will no doubt more than welcome the Thursday and Friday holiday.

It seems such a short time since the Christmas vacation.

The Senior Class is busy at tryouts for their annual play.

The Youth Fellowship of the Methodist Church meet each Friday evening this season for some amusement out of doors, weather permitting. Otherwise they meet at the Church for ping pong, etc.

Miss Johns and Mr. Bolitho have served refreshments to the gatherings as their donation toward the young folks good time.

Our community was much in evidence at Farmington gatherings on Tuesday afternoon at the Band Mothers' Meet The Missus and in the evening at the Eastern Star.

party and Tuesday being one of the worst days this year, as far as the weather is concerned. Our dear Michigan with its spring day and zero winter the next.

Those balmy days made the housewife get after her windows, curtains, etc., and those of us who failed to take advantage can put up with them dirty for awhile again.

The Girl Scout leaders and committee people met at the home of Mrs. Andrew Carrothers on Monday evening.

A representative group are attending a district meeting at Birmingham on Tuesday, January 28. On February 15 the Scouters are planning a cookout and games for all Scouts and Brownies.

The Ben Sinclairs have been heard from during their stay in Galveston, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Walsh attended the funeral of Mr. Walsh's aunt in Detroit on Saturday.

The Axel Rutilas motored to Chelsea on Sunday to look over

HAVE YOU REGISTERED

So You Can Vote February 17?

This will be the most important election in years because the issues are clearly drawn. There is only one issue!

Do you want incompetent, lapackadical township representatives or do you want energetic competent ones.

We, the Township Veterans Committee are entering candidates for all Township offices. They are men with ability who will devote a large share of their time to representing your interests. If you want able, conscientious service for the next two years vote for them!
