CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA
TELEPHONE FARM. 1124-M

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. M. J. Belser on account of the death of his mother the past week.

Christmas repercussions — 12 year old sister gave the 14 year old sister a belt for Christmas and the other day she damaged and wore it, and war waged for a little while.

A Stanley brush demonstration was held by Mrs. Norman Johnson at her home on Hamilton recently. Luncheon was served and prizes distributed to those present, all of which added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

A surprise birthday party was given by the Thurlio Miniblanckes at their Bloomfield Hills home honoring Mrs. Sam Johnson and Mr. Mory Lipke. Eighteen guests were present at the lovely party.

The Cub Pack meeting held Friday night was well attended by a large percentage of parents. A strong invitation goes out from the committee to come to the next meeting at the high school and see the good work put out by the Dens. They had showing of pottery, wood work, games and other handicrafts. Those parents who are given a good show by the youngsters with their skills. Mr. Novicki and Mr. Mullins of John Grace Pack were guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Swarthout is studying painting with a group of friends at Detroit Art Institute. One of the best turn-outs at a community affair in this district was that at the Faculty — vs. — Varsity basketball game held at Volney Smith Gym last Wednesday for benefit of Girl Scout Troop 6. The faculty was assisted by Alumni Joe Frisk, Murray Callan and Fred Holmes. The variety was dressed in sunbonnets and dresses, but Bob Sonnenberg stole the show with his sunroof, with long gold curls and a stocking cap.

Mrs. Earl Marks, Mrs. Pierce Van Camp, Mrs. R. N. Watwood, Mrs. C. L. Mortimer and Mrs. Della Thornton were among those from this district who visited the Michigan State Caravan on Inkster Rd. on Saturday and found the exhibit very worthwhile, with ideas for the farm and home. Miss DuBois, Wayne County agent, was mingling among the crowd.

This concordant and Mrs. Rutila attended the showing of birds native to this community by Mr. Nickles at Ford Republic gymnasium for the boys and guests on Sunday evening. The colored slides were beautiful and Mr. Nickles' imitations of bird calls and information were most enlightening. I have seen each of the birds shown in the slides, around these woods. Mr. Nickles is to return to study the birds on the spot.

Mrs. Willard Wild of Milburn is confined to the hospital following surgery. We hope for her speedy recovery and return home. The Edgewood Mothers Club luncheon and card party at the L.O.O.F. Hall on Wednesday was quite a gathering of the club and all those in attendance had a good time despite the extreme weather.

Members of the newly organized Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce were guests of the Edgewood Mothers Club luncheon and card party at the L.O.O.F. Hall on Wednesday.

John Hunt, past national vice-president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce was guest speaker for the evening. He was introduced by Jim Tagg. Mr. Hunt gave an excellent talk, telling of the work of the Jaycees, and what it can mean here in Farmington. All members of the Farmington Chapter who were present were introduced.

Some excellent singing added further zest to the meeting, the music being provided by Joe Himmelsbach, Jim Warner, Lloyd Smith and Leo Gledemeyer — a top notch quartet — as well as group singing.

This week in Ladies Night, and the club is meeting at Black's White House on Grand River Avenue.

Some of the Farmington folks in Detroit Monday were Mrs. Warren Joy, Mrs. George Hogg and home guests from Pennsylvania and Mrs. Hugh McIntyre.
