A Memory Picture

We endeavor to create, in the service we conduct, a Memory Picture that will give lasting comfort.

This is accomplished by our restoring a life-like appearance to the deceased, by carrying out the family's wishes as to type of service desired, befitting their religious faith, by courtesy, thoughtfulness, and personal attention to small details.

LIVONIA GIRL SCOUTS PLAN YEAR'S PROGRAM

Helping Brownies, Girl Scouts, and Senior Girl Scouts to have a rich and satisfying experience as members of that organization is the program aspect of the Livonia Girl Scout Council's work. If Girl Scouting is to be a vital force in the community, if the girls are doing worthwhile things, then often behind the local Council is accepting its challenge of program responsibilities.

Every place of work, if it is to be done skillfully, requires tools that are sharpened and ready at hand. The tools for making Girl Scouting available to girls of all three age groups are to be found in certain basic facts regarding the girls themselves and the Girl Scout program. All the information that the community offers to the local girl leaders can be easily picked up by the Council and used to make the local program as stimulating as possible. Leaders and girls as they turn to the Council for ideas and help in carrying out their plans, not only find ways open for them but are made aware of new interests and possibilities; their use of the materials brings suggestions for changes and additions. By this means the program is kept timely and useful.

The Girl Scout program exists in order that girls may find opportunities for individual and social development. Bringing Girl Scouting to the girls of the community is the privilege of leaders and local Council members working together.

The Program Committee is likely to have a most interesting and satisfying part in the work in formal relationships is possible among members of the Committee, leaders, and program consultants, and where the contribution of Girl Scouting is apparent to the whole community. There is usually a common feeling of responsibility and a common sense of achievement and pride as the program develops. We are fortunate here that the local girls are eager to accomplish that a personal interest in Girl Scouting, and that the Girl Scouts feel themselves a part of the community and can see the results of their efforts toward making Livonia a better community in which to live.

Activities outside the realm of standard Girl Scout activities are under the jurisdiction of the Free Time Committee. Visits to museums, churches, other cities, theater trips, etc., are some of the interesting sidelights planned by your Committee, which is headed by Mrs. E. M. O'Hara.
