Novi News

By Mrs. George Waite

Mrs. Anna Hallinan is spending an indefinite time with her daughter, Mrs. Hedy Buchert and Mrs. George Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyones were Pontiac visitors on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Root were dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Lyones on Wednesday. Harold Bachert received his discharge last Saturday and is now at home.

Mrs. Bob Clemens and daughter Carol were week end visitors in Toledo with the former's mother, Mrs. R. E. Ward returned home Sunday morning from Almond, Arkansas, where she spent the past four weeks.

A conference of organizations for community self help was held in Fenton on Monday afternoon and evening. Those attending, from here were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Skellenger, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Truck, Mrs. Lancy Ray, Mrs. Alma Klesner, Mrs. Larson, Mrs. Signa Mitchell, Mr. Don Archambeau and Mr. Ver Dura. The main speakers were Dr. H. W. McCusky and Dr. Harold Dorr of the University of Michigan. Dinner was served at six o'clock at the new Fenton Community Center. All report a very enjoyable time, and their time well spent, it being very interesting as well as educational.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Buehler of Novi Road left the past week for the vicinity where Dr. Buehler has opened up a practice.

Miss Jeanette Williams of Detroit spent Sunday with her sister and family, the J. D. Mitchell. The V. D. Dura returned home from Florida the past week.

Ernie Smith, a veteran of World War I, is confined in Sessions Hospital with a heart condition, and will be removed to the Veterans Hospital in Dearborn as soon as he is able.

West Farmington News

By Mrs. Sarah Knapp

Arthur Green, Wendell Green, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. German, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shew, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holter were among the many from here who attended the Farm Progress. Caravan of the Michigan State College Extension Service, held at Pontiac Armory on Wednesday, January 29. Most of the exhibits were outlined in panel photography, better farm homes and better farming exhibited by comparing the old way and improved methods. Farm water supply was an interesting exhibit and it demonstrated how to fight farm fires. The model kitchen was very interesting with every article in handy place to save work and time. Fred Tamm spent Saturday in Holly with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp are the parents of a baby girl, Evelyn Jane, born February 1, at Booth Memorial Hospital, Detroit. Both mother and baby are doing nicely. The Good Cheer Class of the United Lake Baptist Church elected officers at their meeting on Saturday evening. New officers are president, MacCallan Sparks; vice president, Roland Green and secretary-treasurer, Eleanor Nyburg.

Mrs. George Welch, Mayfield Avenue, was ill under a physician's care, all of last week, but is now somewhat improved.

Mrs. William Sherman has returned from a two-week's visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Huntz, who were married January 25th, have returned from their honeymoon and are at home in the Fisher residence on Mayfield Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, Mayfield Avenue, left this Monday for an indefinite stay in Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Ethel Perry, who, for several weeks has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jack Tallman, is leaving this week for her home in northern Michigan.

Miss Lora Anne Ault and Miss Audrey Roberts spent Thursday in Detroit.

Leonard Broquet, from Northville, was visiting his father, F. Broquet, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange, who were under observation at Mt. Carmel Hospital for a week, returned Saturday to his home on Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Austin Ault was a guest of Mrs. Clarke Bonar, in Milford, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, from Dearborn, were Saturday afternoon guests of Mrs. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange.

Mrs. Edward Stromski, of Wayne, is recovering from a major operation she underwent Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Stromski resided in West Point Park several years and has many friends and relatives in this locality.

John Varhol and sons, William and Richard, were off on an ice fishing expedition Sunday.

Mrs. Stanley Sherman has been suffering with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Vett Cooley, from Hazel Park, was visiting her cousin, Mrs. Clinton Ault, last Tuesday.

Alfred Schult, who has been a patient in Mt. Carmel Hospital for two weeks, returned to his home on Shadydale Avenue Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Austin Ault entertained the ladies of her card club at her home on Irving Avenue last Friday evening. At the finish of the games, first prizes, which were useful little glass saucepans, were awarded Mrs. Albert Owen and Mrs. Ralph Voorhees. Mrs. Harry Wolfe and Mrs. Clinton Ault carried off the trophies, attracting the pleasing climax of the happy affair.

Dolores Ault spent Sunday afternoon in Detroit.

The Sunshine Sisters held their usual meeting in the Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon, January 29th, and with a very fair attendance considering the weather, the date was regarded as the worst day of the winter. "Neighborhoodness" was the topic and during the devotional service, Bible references along that line were looked up and read. An interesting discussion developed regarding the problems of would-be good neighbors. During the Sunshine session some fine readings were contributed by various ladies. Reports showed a large number of sick and shut-ins in the community. Certain plans were made for future activities. During the Social hour, a large, beautiful Sunshine-decorated cake baked by Mrs. Joseph Sidelinger was cut and served with the customary tea. Also, birthday greetings were sung for little Miss Janet Schult, whose second birthday was January 25th. The next meeting of the social hour there will be a grab-bag exchange of valentines. Each person attending is requested to bring some sort of valentine.
