Hall (connected to the church).

THE REV. CHRISTOPHER

THE REV. CHRISTOPHER Raible of Boston will be the keynote speaker. Following his talk, entitled "The Stubborn Spirit," workshops will be held on "Com-munication." Rev. Raible will stress the need of learning to communicate, to understand and to work with one's fellow men. This theme will also be discussed briefly by Joe Samples of Detroit, a

THE STONE WILL BE ROLLED AWAY from the entrance to St. Ken-neth Catholic Church in Plymouth on Easter Sunday morning to symbolize the Resurrection. Mrs. Mary Ann Hillmeyer, left, and Mrs. Edna Stephenson are members of the parish Luturgical Arts Committee which fashioned the "stone" and a grotto-like appearance for the doorway as a special Hol Week project. The stone was put in place to block the doorway at the close of the church's Good Friday service. (Observer photo by Bob Woodr
