ATOMIC POWER FOR HEALING
PITTSBURG, PA. — Business end of the whirlwind, new cyclotron at the University of Pittsburgh, which will harness atomic forces for the pacetime use of mankind in medical research. Already experimented with in treating cancer and leukemia, the cyclotron is considered to have greater healing possibilities than the X-ray and to open vast, unexplored fields to medical progress. Technicians show with pointer the huge 100-ton electro-magnet, between which atomic forces are brought to play. Circular tanks hold cyclotron oil developed by Gulf research to dissipate heat in 15 miles of copper wire coiled about magnet.

THE A.B.C. — AND WHAT IT MEANS TO OUR READERS
Word has been received of the election of the Farmington Enterprise to membership in the A.B.C. — the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

In becoming a member of A.B.C., the Enterprise joins the ranks of the most progressive weekly papers of the 10,000 weeklies in the nation, who are qualified to use the A.B.C. symbol — which is recognized by national advertisers everywhere as the symbol of honest circulation.

The recent audit of the circulation of the Enterprise by one of this organization's auditors, showed that the Enterprise has a total net paid, circulation of 1,692, for the quarter ending September 30, 1946.

Forward looking publishers of the nation realize the merits of joining A.B.C., for when circulation is reported by the A.B.C., as being of a certain figure, then advertisers may be assured that the actual number of paid subscribers the publisher has and that is the readership total they will receive.

Audit Bureau of Circulations is an organization maintained by advertisers, advertising agencies and the buyers and agency members who have established definite terms and classifications by which circulation can be judged. The A.B.C. symbol of circulation is as accurate as the butchers' and grocers' tested and sealed scales; it's as accurate as a gasoline filling station's pumps.

The Enterprise is pleased that it has been selected as one of the new members of A.B.C. — proud that it can substantiate its circulation claims with audited figures.

Aluminum Bodies
A spot-welding technique has been developed that opens the way to mass production of all-aluminum automobile bodies.

Vitamin Sources
Leafy vegetables are among the richest sources of vitamin K.

From the oldest records supplied by Egyptian monuments, it is apparent that several distinct varieties of dogs had been developed 4,000 to 5,000 years ago.

THANK YOU

I sincerely appreciate the splendid support shown me by the voters of Farmington Township in the recent Primary Election. I shall endeavor to do my best to serve you during the coming term.
