WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Thursaday of last week, Mrs. John Mercer, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Baker, gave a luncheon at her home on Seven Mile Road, honoring Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Georgins, from Redford.

F. Broquet was the Sunday guest of his son, Clarence Broquet, on Beach Road. Mrs. Clarence Broquet has been on the sick list for some time.

Baby Ina Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Tallman, Mayfield Avenue, has been quite ill with bronchitis.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Ault for a few weeks, has returned to her own residence on Hubbard Avenue.

Darla Mae and Arnold, young children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jennings, Norfolk Avenue, have been confined to their home with heavy colds for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sideltinker were visiting in Ferndale, Friday.

Mrs. Emmerson Ault left Wednesday for New London, Ohio, where she planned to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Johnson Porter and family through the week end.

Harold, Joanne and Jimmy McVicar, who have all been ill with heart fever, are now doing nicely and expect to be out with their playmates in another week.

Arthur Schult, who has been convalescing from a major operation undergone a few days ago, will return to school within a few days.

Davy Buckingham is improving, following a few days' illness.

Charles Davis, of the Country Store, Farmington Road, is leaving this week for a month's vacation, during which he expects to visit various places, including California.

Mrs. David McWhinnie, from Detroit, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Stanley Chavez, last Wednesday.

Rev. Kauranen, from northern Michigan, was the guest of his son, Norman Kauranen, on Mayfield Avenue, Sunday. This was a special occasion in celebration of a Norman Kauranen's birthday.

Stanley Shilling, who has been on the sick list for a few weeks, expects to return to his employment shortly.

The old Wheeler homestead on Seven Mile Road was threatened with destruction by fire Tuesday evening of last week. The Redford fire department, summoned to the scene, managed to extinguish the blaze before too much damage could be done. A large crowd watched with great interest the up-to-date methods of the modern-day equipped fire crew. The house, which had just been redecorated, was unoccupied at the time and the origin of the blaze is not known.

Many West Point Park folks mourn the passing of Mrs. Minnie Bradley, who, following a long illness, died last Saturday morning. Although a resident of Farmington at the time of her death, Mrs. Bradley once lived for several years in West Point Park and was highly respected in that community.

In honor of her husband's birthday, Mrs. O. R. Ault entertained a number of friends and relatives at the Ault Residence on Shadyside Avenue Sunday evening. Mr. Ault was showered with congratulations. Notice was taken of the fact that his brother, Austin Ault, who was among those present, was celebrating his birthday also on March 3rd.

The hostess, assisted by her daughters, served generous portions of birthday cake, with appropriate accompaniments to all.

Several mail boxes in our vicinity were knocked down last week by stiddling cars. Until spring thaws make the digging of post-holes possible, they are being held stationary by various propping-up contrivances.

Mrs. Ralph Voorhees, Shadyside Avenue, entertained her card club last Wednesday evening. First prize, a useful cream whip, was won by Mrs. Clinton Ault. Dainty refreshments were a pleasing climax.

A Definition of Our Town

Somebody defined our town just the other day as "a place where the people talk about you behind your back, and come to wait on you when you're sick."

I've got to admit there's something to it. A lot of our folks are inclined to be pretty outspoken and quick to criticize... even about little things, like a woman's hat, or a man's preference for a glass of beer, or the color of Cy Hartman's new barn.

But when anyone's in trouble, those differences and points of criticism are forgotten... and folks become neighborly and helpful, like they really are.

From where I sit, criticism never did much harm to anybody, so long as folks don't let it guide their actions... so long as they respect our individual preferences, whether they apply to hats or beer. That's the way it is in our town, anyway, and I hope that it's the same in yours.
