Rev. Carl Schultz, pastor of the Salem Evangelical Church, was the speaker at the Exchange Club meeting Wednesday noon of this week.
Rev. Schultz based his talk on the question: "Are you a part of the world's problem or are you a part of the answer to the world's problem?" This question was taken from the writings of Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Rev. Schultz stressed the fact that life is earnest and that our actions are important as we go along. He expressed concern over the fact that individuals in the world today are not accepting responsibility, the spirit of "passing the buck".

The answer to the problems of the world is for men, as individuals, and nations, to become "fit to live with".

Next Wednesday Herbert Lundberg is program chairman, and movies will be shown.

The efforts of Mrs. Samuel Turner, Mc Flynn and the rest of the planning committee were rewarded with a splendid response. The proceeds from the party will be presented to the Farmington Girl Scout Council.
The committee would like to take this opportunity to thank the Enterprise, Farmington Radio Company, Tom Schlenker, photographer, the Kacy florists, DeRoy Jewelry Company and the H and K Department Store for their fine cooperation.

Fuel Economy
Fuel economy starts in the boiler or furnace. The first step is to see that the heat absorbing surfaces are clean. These surfaces should be thoroughly brushed or scraped. In many cases, the inside of the boiler may need cleaning, too, with a good boiler cleaning compound. When coal is used, the ash pit must be kept clean in order to give full admission of air to the fuel bed. If clinkers form on the grates, they will block the passage of air.
