"I buy at because..."

... it seems that everyone is talking about their amazing values. And they give remarkable quality too.

Why just the other day we selected some really fine graduation and wedding gifts and not all of them were high priced either. Some were as little as $1.95. The selection was very good too. They had beautiful diamond rings, fine watches, gleaming silverware and hundreds of other gifts that everyone would be proud to own and to give. And best of all we bought on a dignified budget plan.

So we decided that our best bet for quality jewelry is

With Noel Carpenter as program chairman on Wednesday, the Exchange Club members heard a most interesting discussion presented by speech students from the University of Michigan.

D. C. Kleckner, Debate Coach from the University of Michigan and three students, Robert Dills of Iowa, Beatrice Brown of Iowa, Michigan and Calvin Simpson of Garden City, Michigan, talked on the question, "Should labor have a direct voice on the management of industry?" After twenty minutes of presentation of ideas of both sides of the question was given by the students, it was open to the club for discussion.

Members of the club found it a most interesting program, refusing to permit the students to return to their classes after the meeting.

The program for next Wednesday is Ladies Night. Dinner at 6:30. Program Chairman Arthur Lamb.
