CLARENCEVILLE NEWS

By MRS. AXEL RUTILA

Our community was deeply saddened last week by the sudden and untimely death of four of our citizens. Mr. Conkey, Mr. Champagne, Mr. Robert Neal and Mr. Lloyd Coder. The sympathy of these men who had lived among us several years. Mr. Coder was the retiring treasurer of the newly organized P.T.A.

Mr. Nicholas Hautamaki and Mrs. Henry Robertson entertained the mothers of their Bible students at Edgewood School on Tuesday, from three to five.

The Extension group met at the home of Mrs. Sharon on Eight Mile, while leaders Mrs. C. L. Mortimer and Mrs. Leo Blatter continued their lesson on curtaining windows. Those of us who attended the Second Annual Bandale in Farmington on Saturday were treated to a very excellent evening of entertainment. The youngsters from Farmington, Melvindale and Clawson were rehearsed from three to 5:30 in the afternoon, and seemingly were perfect in the evening in the presentation of their marches and their numbers entitled "Star Dust" and "Legende". The Trumpet Trio, Messrs. Harry Peterson, John Mott and Joseph Bevilacqua of Wayne University, accompanied by Miss Smith, was welcomed by Miss Petrella led the combined Bands in the "Thunder March".

Those students who participated in the State Festival the previous week were introduced to the audience. Fred Grose, Jr., trumpeter, and June Toth, pianist and a former student in our schools, were among the highly successful participants.

Mr. Mann presents the band, and Miss Margaret Tremier, the chorus in a joint recital this Friday evening, May 2, at 8:00 p.m., at the High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walsh of Colwell spent Thursday in Toledo on business.

The Harlow Nelsons of Oxford have commenced building operations on their new home on Athlon.

A note of amusement is provided at Central School by the mongrel pup who attends school every day in Mrs. Weygandt's classroom, lying under her desk and seemingly stealing everything in it. Miss Hattala's classroom is a regular animal first aid and sustenance room.

The Kenneth Swarthouts entertained the Westergaard family of Detroit at dinner on Sunday.

The Band Boosters Club met at the home of Mrs. Hodgson on Eight Mile Road on Tuesday evening.

A Memorial Day Parade Committee is to be formed on Tuesday,

May 6, at the High School. All civic organizations, veterans groups, church, fraternal, Scouts and Mothers Clubs are asked to please send a representative.

The Club Pack meeting held on Friday evening was bigger and better than ever, especially the handicraft is always amazing bird houses, weather vane, reading lamps, belts for boy's trousers, plaques, coin collections, etc., making the boys the busy little beavers that they are. Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis of Parker Avenue were installed as new Don S. Mother and Father.

The V.F.W. of Redford Township held their installation of officers at the Maccabees Hall on Saturday evening.

Miss June Jacques and her language class are deep in plans for their costumed Roman Banquet, and the Seniors, the whole 48 of them, are up to their necks in their week end trip to Sault Ste. Marie and Mackinac Island, via steamer.

Paul Vandenberg, our electric appliance shop merchant, has taken up new quarters next to Durham's gas station, while Mr. Wood has moved into the former appliance shop with a complete line of toy and model aircraft.

NOVI NEWS

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE
TELEPHONE NORTHVILLE 950-J3

The Rebekah Lodge held their regular meeting on Thursday evening with initiation. They initiated twelve candidates. Several visitors were present. A lovely time was had by all. Tickets were sold on a huge basket of groceries, to help pay for the new coffee maker, on which they realized nearly $20.

Mrs. Eva Behardt carried the basket home and Mrs. Lil Trickey, quart of maple syrup, and Mrs. Frances Denton five pounds of sugar. I know by the price she paid for it, it sure is sweet sugar. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Minnie Martin and her committee. The Mothers Club are holding a bake sale on Saturday, May 3, at Laree's Beauty Salon. Come one, come all, and get your home made pies, cakes, cookies, doughnuts, bread and rolls, baked beans, macaroni and cheese.

Miss Irene and Virginia Kaluzny entertained house guests over the week end and Mrs. Lil Trickey.

Mrs. J. W. Chandler, sister of Mrs. Earl Ward, had a major operation in Sessions Hospital on Wednesday. She is getting along nicely although she has been very ill.

The Dick Welch's entertained guests at dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kramer of Walled Lake visited on Saturday at the George Hines.

Mrs. Bertha Wood, who spent the winter in St. Petersburg, Florida, has returned home.

Mrs. A. McCollum returned home on Thursday from Mt. Carmel Hospital after a two weeks' stay. Although still in bed, she is getting along nicely.

The Rebekahs are planning a Mother's and Daughter Banquet for May 16.

Oh, yes! I want to tell you about Trickey's Treat. They expect to move into their new quarters on Grand River, between the 15th and 20th streets, but will let you know later. They'll treat you right at the Treat, and will always welcome you. Give the kids a call.

Mrs. Laney Rix has returned home after visiting her sons in Washington, D. C.

George Bowers underwent an operation on his eyes at St. Joseph Hospital, Pontiac, on Thursday. At this writing he is getting along fine.

By the way, if you are interested in your Novi items, contact your correspondent. You like to read about the other fellow, and I just bet they like to read about you. Let's push the items.

George McCollum entertained at dinner on Sunday evening, celebrating his birthday. Congratulations.
