Falcon Nine Wins

when McLean singled and Greul lashed out his second hit of the game, a double to left center field. Gene Schoeffter and Tom Bertin, who have been responsible for a good share of the Falcons winning streak the past few weeks, brought the crowd to their feet in the fourth and sixth innings respectively when each drove home runs over the left fielder's head. showed his possession of a fine throwing arm when he threw out a Viking runner trying to go from first to third on a single. These two boys will have much to show the Farmington fans next year. Coach Davis has been quite pleased with his team's steady improvement and at this time is wondering who will be his number one pitching choice and shortstop next year. ## SHIRLEY SCHUMAN IS BRIDE OF STANLEY COOKE

At a lovely candlelight ceremony in the St. Paul's Evangelical Church in Detroit on Saturday evening, May 31, Shirley Jane Schuman became the bride of Stanley Richard Cooke. Shirley Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schuman, 3831 Scotton Road, and Stanley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. R. Cooke of 20759 Hugo.

Rev. Schuteman officiated at the seven o'clock service. Preceding the ceremony a member of the church choir sang "Because".

The bride, going in marriage to her father, wore a dress of white sateen, fashioned with a full skirt and long train. Her veil was full length with lilacs of the valley forming the tiers. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Alvin Bukle, who wore a blue taffeta gown with net overskirt, and she carried roses dyed to match her gown. Miss Evelyn Reno was maid of honor, and she wore a gown exactly like that of the matron of honor and carried a similar bouquet. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Arnold Schroeder, who wore a gown of pale green, and carried pale green roses. Mrs. Robert Schroeder wearing a gown of pale yellow with roses to match, and Adele Bukle, wearing a gown of pale pink with roses to match. They all wore picture hats.

Linda Rhoda was the little flower girl. She wore a peach taffeta gown. George Cooke, the bridegroom's brother, was best man, and ushers were Wright Taylor, Al Bukle, Pete Bukle and Arnold Schroeder. They all wore tuxedos and had white carnations for boutonnières.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schuman chose a floor length gown of rose taffeta. Mrs. Cooke wore a gown of black taffeta. Mrs. Schuman's corsage was of pink roses and Mrs. Cooke's corsage was of burnt orange roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held at Hispano Unidos Hall, and an open house was held at the Schuman home on June 1. About three hundred guests attended the reception. The young couple left June 2 for a two weeks motor trip through the East. They will make their home with the bride's parents on Scotton Road for the present.

ANTIQUE SHOW AND SILVER TEA IS SATURDAY

A most cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend the Silver Tea and Antique Show to be held at the First Methodist Church, Grand River and Warner Avenues, on Saturday, June 7, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. The affair is sponsored by the Mothers Club of the church.

Women of the community are invited to display any collections of antiques they may have. It is expected that a most interesting showing will be made by various residents of Farmington.

If you have an exhibit, please call Mrs. H. L. Benner at Farmington 0346-W, to make arrangements to show your collection.

Guy Durgan Speaks At Akron Conferences

Guy Durgan was in Akron, Ohio, last week, where he addressed a group of school principals on Tuesday afternoon, and appeared before the Akron Community Council in the evening. Mr. Durgan spoke to both groups on the subject, "Democratic Human Relations".

Mrs. Charles Armstrong spent Monday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Carter entertained a large group of relatives at their home on Hubbard Avenue Sunday.

Miss Betty Parsons Honored At Tea

Miss Betty Parsons, whose parents recently announced her engagement to Mr. Carl Linden of Detroit, was surprised by faculty friends with a farewell tea on Tuesday, May 27.

The library was decorated with spring flowers. Miss Ruth Bailey and Miss M. Elsie Barard poured tea and coffee, while the Misses Wilma Brandenberg, Virginia Carley and Margaret Lingo served fancy sandwiches and cake.

Miss Parsons received a silver sugar and creamer.

LORA ANNE AULT HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWERS

Miss Lora Anne Ault, whose marriage to Thomas Roberts of Monroe is to be an event of Saturday, June 7, was recently honored at two bridal showers.

At a party given at the home of Austin Ault of Irving Avenue last Wednesday evening, about thirty relatives and old friends gathered for a pleasant evening. The bridled jars were carefully undone and appreciatively inspected by the young bride-to-be. A few games of bunco added to the gaiety of the occasion and the hostess, assisted by her three daughters, served luncheon.

Another shower honoring Lora Anne was held Thursday evening at the home of her cousin, Dolores Ault, who is to serve as a bridesmaid at the wedding. Girl friends of the neighborhood met together and presented a number of lovely gifts to the honored guest. Later, the hostess served delicious cake and ice cream.

CIVIC THEATRE PLANS ANOTHER P.T.A. MATINEE

Another in the highly popular series of P.T.A. approved matinees at the Civic Theatre, will be presented this week, June 6, Friday afternoon. Although the feature has been selected as one particularly appropriate and well suited for boys and girls, the matinee is open to everyone, and special prices are given for adult students. An excellent program is always assured.

The matinee begins at 3:00 p.m. but one may come as late as 3:45 and still see the complete feature. Friday's matinee will feature "Alice in Wonderland" starring Gary Cooper, Jack Cable and May Robson.

Mrs. Dora Turner has, as her house guest, her twin sister, Mrs. Della Riley of Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Riley have been visiting in New York and in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.
