

Ancient Glass Lecture Topic

"Glass and Ancient Religions" will be the topic for the fifth talk in the St. Bernardine of Siena Adult Speakers Program, scheduled at 8:30 p.m. Friday, April 14, in the church at 3165 Ann Arbor Trail, Westland.

DR. SIDNEY GOLDSTEIN

The speaker will be Dr. Sidney M. Goldstein, assistant professor of fine arts at the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Goldstein is a classical archaeologist who participated in the Harvard-Cornell excavations at Sardis, Turkey, and the discovery there of the largest and most ornate synagogue of the ancient world.

He has developed a special interest in ancient glass, its technology and its use in worship.

In his talk, he will show slides of glass artifacts found in fairly recent archaeological expeditions and will tell how they relate to today's religion.

Tickets for the talk are $1. The St. Bernardine adult lecture series will be concluded May 12 with a talk by Mrs. Jo Lohmolder on "Wonders with Weeds."

2 FISH Meetings Planned April 13

FISH, the voluntary non-professional groups of neighbors helping neighbors in Farmington and Southfield, will present two informative programs this month.

The first will be held in Nardin Park Methodist Church, 11 Mile and Middle Belt, Farmington, at 9:30 a.m., Sunday, April 13. The Woman's Association will feature a film on FISH at its monthly meeting. A member of the group will explain the role of the Farmington - Southfield organization.

Sacred Concert Is April 9

The Concert Choir of Wheaton Christian High School, formerly Wheaton Academy, will present a concert of sacred music in Ward United Presbyterian Church, 17000 Farmington Road, Livonia, at 7 p.m., Sunday, April 9.

The 42-voice choir from Wheaton, Ill., is currently on a 10-day concert tour through Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Michigan.

The concert will include a wide variety of music, ranging from sacred classics to arrangements of hymns and spirituals. Some of the more familiar pieces are "The Last Words of David" by Thompson, "For All the Saints" by Vaughan Williams, and well-known spirituals, "Were You There?" and "Let Us Break Bread Together."

The director is Hughes M. Huffman Jr. He is founder director of the OakBrook Choral Society and minister of music of Christ Church of OakBrook, Ill.

The accompanists are Gloria Shih, pianist, and Wayne Mass, organist.

Several members of the church are already acting as FISH volunteers.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS Catholic Church, Southfield and Powers, Farmington, will host a program on FISH at 8 p.m., April 13, for the public. Again, a film will be shown and a question and answer period will follow.

A volunteers point out that one need not have a church affiliation to be a member. The only requirement is to be willing to help as a neighbor and friend and be inconvenienced occasionally.

THERE ARE NOW more than 200 volunteers in the Farmington - Southfield organization, and they receive well over 200 calls for help each month through an answering service.

Calls for transportation are the most frequent and more drivers are needed.

Other areas in which volunteers help are in providing emergency baby-sitting, companionship for the elderly, clothing and emergency food, and rides for shut-ins.
