FARBEN OFFICIALS ANSWER CHARGES
