GIRL SCOUT TRAINING COURSE OPEN TO ALL

The third session of the Girl Scout training course will be presented this Thursday evening at the High School Library. This course is designed to be of interest and help to all workers in Girl Scouting, and everyone is invited to attend the sessions.

"Ceremonies" will be the subject of the October 9 session and on October 16 outdoor programs and financing of troops will be discussed.

Thursday evening, October 23, a training film will be presented. This film will be of interest to everyone, whether or not they have been attending the regular training course, and a most cordial invitation is extended. Arts and crafts will also form a part of this program.

All workers and those interested in Girl Scouts and their activities are welcome at all sessions of the training course. You will enjoy each evening's program.

INJURED GIRL GRATEFUL FOR MANY FRIENDS

Ileen Willis, 13, has had her cast removed and will soon be around again after being bedfast for a period of five months. She received her injuries while playing on the bars at the Farmington School grounds. At the time of the accident she was living with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willis. They report her condition is now improving rapidly.

Ileen is very grateful to all her friends and teachers for the many gifts and cards she received. The Ella Irish Union, W.C.T.U., was especially kind in remembering her.

She returned to her home in Big Beaver Saturday, October 4, after a three day stay in the hospital to have the cast removed.
