WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE L.A. 461-M

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault left Saturday morning for a vacation trip to Pennsylvania. They expect to visit a number of relatives along the route and may be gone several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dall Tallman are off on a vacation trip. While absent their little daughter, Ina Mae, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Shelman, near Farmington, and her little brother, Bobby, is with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tallman.

Mrs. Rudy Tanner, Pembroke Avenue, is having a month's visit with relatives in the East.

Howard Armstrong, from Howell, was recently a guest for a day, of his father, C. A. Armstrong on Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Louis Toroney and children, from Detroit, was calling on West Point Park relatives last week.

Mrs. Adam Rawski, the former Doris Gilbert, was calling in West Point Park recently.

Leonard Broquet, from near Northville, was calling on his father, F. Broquet, the first of last week.

Mr. Broquet may soon go into business in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Kangaras, newlyweds from November 2, have purchased and will occupy the property lately vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Carter, who have moved to Idaho.

James Simpson, of Mayfield Avenue, returned home Sunday after ten days as a patient in Sessions Hospital, Northville.

Mrs. Alva Parks, sister of Mrs. Marvin Addis, and who was removed from the Addis residence on Shadydale Avenue to Sessions Hospital, Northville, ten days ago, has recovered sufficiently from her severe illness to be taken to her home in Detroit.

Mrs. Gordon Vance visited her son, Glenn, in the Veterans' Hospital, Dearborn, Sunday evening. With her she carried a beautiful bouquet of flowers, the gift, with his mother's assistance, of Pfc. Herbert Schult, stationed in Puerto Rico.

Sailor Louis Carter is still located near Naples, Italy. The Piccietto, who have been living at the corner of Mayfield and Eight Mile moved to Warren last Thursday evening. New occupants are already taking possession.

Walter Dixon, well known among Scout workers of this vicinity is a patient in the Highland Park Osteopathic Hospital. An infection resulting from an injury is his trouble.

Mrs. Joe Roberts, Mayfield Avenue, is just now with her husband, who is employed around the Straits in northern Michigan.

Mrs. Ted Masters is ill with pleurisy.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and children, Hubbard Avenue, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts, in Monroe. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson and children were also of the party. Neighbors are extending their sympathy to Arthur Muir, of Shadydale Avenue, whose father, Peter Muir, died suddenly at his home on Hubbard Avenue, Detroit, Thursday morning. Mr. Muir was survived by his wife and six children; all known to many West Point folks.

Mrs. John Attama was visiting in Orion Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Weyman, who have been living in Rochester, moved last week to a residence in Orion. Mrs. Weyman was Miss Marietta Schult, of Shadydale Avenue.

The Lindbergs of Farmington Road, were moving Sunday. It is understood they were going South. Dr. Lewis M. Hotchkiss has returned from St. Carmel Hospital to his home on Seven Mile Road. During his convalescence his practice is being cared for by Dr. Crook.

William Soos, Shadydale Avenue, is reported suffering from painful facial injuries, received at ball practice Sunday afternoon.

Miss Gloria Sidelinkler is with friends in Detroit for the winter.

Twelve beautiful blossoms appeared last week on a leafless plum tree in the yard of the William Sherman property on Mayfield Avenue. The family and neighbors greatly admired the fine specimens.

A cosmetic demonstration party, held at the Soos residence on Shadydale Avenue, attracted a considerable number of ladies last Tuesday afternoon. Enjoyable servings of coffee and cake finally broke up the happy gathering.

A large family dinner honored the birthday of Mrs. Jack Sherman at her home on Farmington Road, near Five Mile Road on Sunday, October 26. Guests presented Mrs. Sherman with some very lovely gifts.

To wish her God-speed several ladies of the neighborhood called on Mrs. Joseph Sidelinkler last Tuesday evening in the Mayfield Avenue home which she vacated last week. A hot luck lunch made the affair more agreeable. The friendly get-together will long be remembered.

A large group of friends assisted John Varhol in celebrating his birthday at his home on Shadydale Avenue Saturday night. All had plenty of fun and birthday cake, with proper accompaniments, came as a pleasant climax. Mr. Varhol was well reciprocated of some very handsome, useful gifts.

Hallowe'en in this section was more quietly celebrated than for years. There are few reports of wild deeds of mischief and little damage seems to have been done anywhere. Yet the streets were more filled than ever with young, costumed beggars clamoring "Help the poor."

[The Neighborhood Church was brightly lighted, warm and comfortable and scores of boys and girls dropped in to receive offerings of chocolate drops and marshmallows from the ladies in charge of the "Little Pink Church" formerly so-called, on Seven Mile Road, an immense crowd of young folks spent a hilarious, but perfectly respectable Hallowe'en. Pastor and certain men of his congregation stood guard for a time over the cement, etc., of the Methodist Church now under construction, but finally left their posts and adjourned to the home of Albert Owen, where they refreshed themselves with doughnuts and coffee. Many older folks spent the witching hours in Farmington and other near-by communities.

The Graham young folks, Roger, Wanda and Dall, gave a most enjoyable party, with all the autumn touches, in the recreation room of their Mayfield Avenue home Saturday evening. The affair was most pleasant to all in attendance. Delightful refreshments came as a matter of course.

Methodist Church Groups Prepare Joint Meeting

The Sunshine Harmony Circle, the Golden Rule Circle, and the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Farmington Methodist Church will hold a joint meeting on Thursday, November 13, at the home of Miss Meriah Andrews, 33209 Shiawassee. Cooperative luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. and all those attending are requested to bring their own table service, and one passing dish.

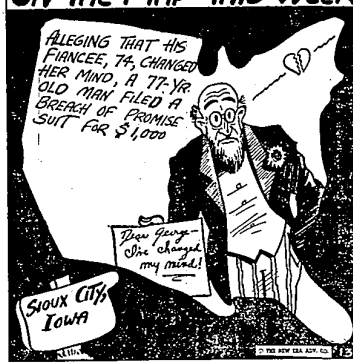

Wednesday evening, the new Methodist Church became completely organized with a full list of officials. It has been definitely decided to name this group the "Livonia Methodist Church," omitting the word "community," with which the church has up to date been associated.

Rev. Gordon Cameron preached a very fine sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service in the Neighborhood Church Sunday and plans to speak on "The Withered Hand" at the same hour next Sunday.

Last Hundred the Best
A little over 50 years ago, most fat steers went to market on the hoof, driven by the producers, taking weeks of time as well as trouble and inconvenience. First, the settlers drove their market cattle over the mountains to market on the Atlantic coast. Later, as the people moved west with the opening of new land, the railroads developed, and the plains became a cattle raising area. Those were the days of the trail drives when great herds of cattle were driven to the railroad. Today it's a simple matter to move cattle from one ranch to market in high speed trucks or by train. A streamlined marketing system makes it possible for the livestock grower to sell his cattle and receive cash for them the same day. It's all a matter of progress, of improvements, of streamlining business through standardization of practices and speeding up movements.

As weather gets more severe, be sure livestock is sheltered adequately. Avoid cold drafty shelters or exposures to storms.
