Girl Scouts Need Additional Help

During the past few weeks articles have appeared in the Enterprise introducing members of the board of the Farmington Township Girl Scout Council, and telling a little about their duties.

We would like, at this time, to mention briefly the "forgotten" people. These are the troop leaders who help the leaders whenever more help is needed for parties or special occasions, and are more or less the leaders and their assistants can carry out. Usually a troop is made up of a leader, one or more assistants, and three or more committee members. The leaders and their assistants meet each week with the girls, but the troop committee help out only when there is a need for extra adult workers.

These committee people are very important workers, however, they often do more than their share. A troop with a good committee runs much smoother, and the leaders are much happier than when they function without a committee.

Another group of important people are the assistants to the board members. The committee chairmen have been introduced in previous articles, and they head the committees on organization, finance, program, training, camping, and educational work.

These committees could function properly with only a chairman and hence each committee has assistants, the number varying according to the need. Every committee chairman is grateful for the fine cooperation the women on her committee have given during the past year.

The organization chairman is extremely grateful for the work done by Mrs. E. M. Mather. There was a great deal of organization done this fall and Mrs. McKerchara really was a big help in the organization in the Nobles and William Grace districts.

Many more adult workers are needed. There will be several vacancies on the Board January 1st, 1948. Mrs. E. M. Mather. There is a great deal of work to be done this fall and winter. The adult board of directors, Classed were held there each day in international relations, conservation, water safety and first aid, swimming, square dancing and many other recreational features were highlights of the ten-day period. Upon his return, Larry organized the Junior Red Cross Council for Oakland County, consisting of students from many country high schools.

John E. Bales, Pontiac, and Scott Shober of Southfield were elected to the Board of Directors of the Oakland County Chapter. Pontiac was particularly well represented at this meeting.

Won't you come forward so that what will not happen in Farmington? If you do, we have a daughter who won't you be a place for her? There won't be a place for every girl who wishes to be a Girl Scout unless more women will help on the Board and the troops. Perhaps in the near future your daughter will be told she can't be a Scout because there is no place for her and she will have to wait.
