FLORAL PARK NEWS

By MRS. EVA BARBER

22735 FLORAL AVENUE

Hi, Farmington! We, the new residents of Floral Park, wish to introduce ourselves to the citizens of Farmington, and readers of The Enterprise. We are strangers now, but hope we won't be for long.

The holiday spirit prevailed all over Floral Park and the displays were so lovely, we have to see them taken down. In spite of the fact that so many of the residents here have just moved into their new homes, they took time out from settling their furniture into place, to create very decorative and pretty lighting effects. One, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hulse of Floral Avenue, was particularly nice. The doorway was outlined with festive Christmas tree branches and multi-colored lights. It shone out like a beacon of good will throughout the holiday season.

The social gatherings were gay. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gillespie of Lilac Avenue entertained on New Year's Eve with a card party. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Hills of Redford and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Barber of Floral Park. They toasted in the New Year and had a gay time.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street spent Christmas with Mrs. Hoeglund's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hupert of Orchard Lake Road. They spent New Year's Day with Mr. Hoeglund's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoeglund of Berkley. Mrs. Oscar Hoeglund had as a guest her brother, Paul, left from home on Saturday, January 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Whiting of Shawassaw spent New Year's Day in Birmingham as guests of Mr. Whiting's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wickham of Floral Avenue entertained their mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Bullock of Hove Island, off of Gibraltar. Mrs. Bullock has an elderly brother who is marooned on Hove Island, off of Gibraltar. He is the only one left of his family.

There is no telephone service due to the storm, and the only bridge to the island was washed away. The family has had no word from him and all are very much worried. Miss Fay Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Smith of Hawthorne Street, spent the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Margaret Van Houten. She came home Friday, and reported having had a lovely time.

Miss Phyllis Barber entertained Miss Doris Moffat for New Year's Eve and as an overnight guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gardner of Floral Avenue were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dwyer, Jr., of Highland Park, for New Year's Eve and as overnight guests. They toasted the New Year in and had an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woshyna of Floral Avenue entertained two couples from Detroit over the holidays. Mrs. Woshyna served a delicious goose dinner, topped off with plum pudding. Every dog has his day, which was also true of Mrs. Woshyna's dog, for the Detroit guests brought the dog a gift of hot dogs, which was his Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yackley of Hawthorne Street spent part of the holidays with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Odette Lynch, and the other half of the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yackley. For New Year's Eve they went to Rosemont Hills with a group of young couples.

We are happy to hear that Sharon and Sandra Woods, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Woods of Floral Avenue, are recuperating from their recent illness. They have had quite a long siege of illness and we hope they will continue to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindbert of Lilac Avenue entertained her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wade of Tucson, Arizona. Also among their guests were Mrs. Lindbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopp of Pontiac and Mr. Lindbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lindbert. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopp dropped in later in the day. Mr. and Mrs. Wade left for their home in Arizona Friday morning.

We are sorry to lose one of our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. L. Foster of Hawthorne Street, who have sold their home and are moving to Rainbow Drive and Farmington Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sills of Floral Avenue were hosts to their grandparents from Ann Arbor. Mr. Sills sang in a presentation of "The Messiah" in Three Rivers and in Almont. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sills were guests soloists on December 21 in a cantata at Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Sills are well known to the students of Farmington High School, where they are music teachers. Mr. Sills will be guest soloist of the A. C. Spark Plug Division of General Motors on January 11, at Flint.

Mrs. Robert Sills gave a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Joyce Upton on Saturday, December 20. There were fifteen guests present from Detroit. Mrs. Upton received many lovely gifts. Her daughter, Meredith Marie, was born December 20. Mrs. W. T. Quick of Floral Avenue is leaving for Florida on or about the 21st of January. With all the ice and snow we're now having, we will think of her enjoying that Florida sunshine. She will go on the Constellation, which takes only five hours from here to Florida. She has business to attend to in Miami, and then will go on to St. Petersburg to visit relatives for two weeks. A pleasant journey, Mrs. Quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh K. Watson of Shawassaw held open house during the holidays. One evening they had eight guests for dinner, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Watson, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson, and children. Last week they entertained six guests for dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell, Minnie Watson and Bill Tensell from Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaVoie of Floral Park held open house all last week. All of their five children and their families visited at the LaVoie home. On New Year's Day, Mr. and Mrs. LaVoie attended ten o'clock Mass, and then had two of their children and grandchildren as guests for dinner. On Friday, January 2, Mrs. LaVoie's niece came from Lansing to spend the day.

Saturday, Mrs. LaVoie's son, Brother Gilbert, and two more Brothers of Dana Scouting College, came for dinner and to spend the day.

Mrs. Charles LaVoie had quite a bad fall during the ice storm. She was out feeding the birds and slipped on the ice, tearing all the ligaments in her arm. We all hope she is feeling better.

Miss Whiting of Shawassaw entertained at a luncheon Friday noon. Her guests were Flo Gillespie, Sheila Barber and Judy Lindbert. All of the children were five to six years old. They sang, played games and had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Hawthorne Street visited in Windsor at the home of Mrs. Hart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gillespie and daughter, Flo, of Lilac Avenue, were guests at a family dinner Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Gillespie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ryckman on Laurier Boulevard. There were fourteen guests present and a lovely time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Barber of Floral Avenue entertained two couples last week. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mandt of Ardmore in Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gillespie of Lilac Avenue. They all played cards and enjoyed a midnight lunch.

We are pleased to welcome some new neighbors into Floral Park. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Alexander and daughter, Beverly, moved into their new home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Everett of Floral Avenue entertained Mr. Everett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Everett of Redford for Sunday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Barber of Floral Avenue entertained Mr. Barber's mother, Mrs. Effie Barber of North Adams, Michigan, for the holidays. She had a lovely time and left for home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Gironx of Alyce Kay Road entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hendrick and daughter, Betty Ann, of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bennett of Alma, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carr and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stosiek and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Van, all of Farmington, on New Year's Eve.

Before her marriage Mrs. Robinson was Phyllis Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard M. Roberts of Hahstad Road. Mr. Robinson is the son of Mrs. Bruce W. Robinson, of Lansing, and the late Dr. Robinson.

Thad's Feet Hurt

After a long, hard day's work on the farm, Thad's idea of how to spend an evening is to take off his shoes, and relax with a mellow glass of beer.

But his missus has other ideas. After being in the house all day, she's all for walking to the village. If it's only for a soda. Likes to see people, catch the latest gossip. But Thad says, no, his feet hurt! Began to cause unpleasantness in Thad's home.

Then Bill Webster comes up with an idea. If Thad takes the missus to Andy's Garden Tavern, Thad can relax with his glass of beer, and the missus can also chat with all the neighbors there. Each gets his (or her) own way.

Worked, too! In fact, now the missus likes an occasional temperate glass of beer herself. And Thad finds it's pleasanter to enjoy his beer with good companions, rather than alone. In fact, his feet stopped hurting too!
