FARMINGTON BOWLING

NEWS

Andy Varipapa, the world's bowling champion of 1947, will be at Farmington Recreation on Thursday, January 22, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. There is a bowler in Farmington that does not welcome this opportunity to see the champion bowl — and who knows, you may be able to pick up a lot of good tricks just from watching him. So come to Farmington Recreation next Thursday, the 22nd, and take a lesson from Andy Varipapa. Remember, the time is from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Woodbine Area News

By MRS. HARVEY MUSSELMAN
Telephone Farm. 0545-R2

The House of Stuart Beauty Clinic was held at the home of Mrs. Victor Bostrom on Woodbine Drive Friday evening at eight o'clock. The following were present: Mrs. Ellmore Aratari, the director, Mrs. Oscar Bostrom, Mrs. Edward Bostrom, Mrs. D. J. Percival, Mrs. George Maston, Mrs. N. Erickson, Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. Harvey Musselman. After the meeting Mrs. Bostrom served a lunch of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Mr. Benjamin Duna of Port Perry, Ontario, Canada, spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Donald Simon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Musselman entertained at a seven o'clock dinner on Thursday, January 8, honoring Mr. Musselman's mother, Mrs. Samuel Musselman, who was 88 years old that day. The guests were: Mrs. W. J. Morrison, a daughter from Lansing, Mrs. A. Bell, Mrs. Gertrude Bell of Royal Oak, Mrs. Ervan Lehenp of Highland Park, three sisters and Mrs. Donna Borchert of Pontiac. She received many cards and gifts and a lovely corsage of white carnations. Grandma Musselman, as everyone calls her, was one of the early settlers of the Upper Peninsula. She has lived with her son on Ten Mile Road for ten years.

Thomas Dennis Moore, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore of Ten Mile Road, was in the Maternal Mercy Hospital on West Outer Drive for an operation last week.

Anthony Halleran of Los Angeles, California, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Tassie on Ten Mile Road.

Mrs. Leo McLean of Adams Road has been on the sick list for several days.

Linda Alexander of Ferndale is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Mayer on Ten Mile Road while her mother is in the hospital. Linda is only two years old but is adjusting herself very well to the new arrangement.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tassie and Albert Root from Ten Mile Road spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill on Glastonbury Road in Detroit.

Mrs. Clifton Sage, Delores Simon, Joan Egner and Iva Aldrich went out to the Bonnie Brook Golf Course for a toboggan party Saturday afternoon. The weather conditions were just right and they had a fine time.

Development of Roses
Men have devoted almost entire lifetimes to the discovery and development of both orchids and roses. The secret of growing long-stemmed roses was discovered when it was found that pinching terminal buds made the main stem produce a new shoot and continue to grow longer, at the same time producing a more beautiful flower.

FARMINGTON CLEANERS

Wish to ANNOUNCE...

That Farmington now has its own dry cleaning plant!

We have just installed new, modern, scientific equipment. All work at FARMINGTON CLEANERS is now done on the premises.

That means that you will be able to bring your garments in and get them back when you want them. There is no need to wait days for needed garments!

We feel that this is our contribution to Farmington's well being. You are cordially invited to come in and inspect our plant and see for yourself just how we make your garments new again.
