Around The Block

FARMINGTON FOLKS .... have reached the point where they fail to see anything beautiful about a suovfall. Yes, it has actually come to that. Our city and the sur-rounding territory was beautiful with a blanket of clean white snow Wednesday morning, and what happens? All people could say was what have a back of a not that we had to have more snow, when we still had the snow we got before Christmas. It has never warmed up yought og et rid of it. Cheer up, folks — maybe spring isn't as far af as it looks. Mind you, we said only maybe, and that doesn't guaran-tion a thire. or a thing. . . . . .

Even if it was the cause for Mr. Groundbog getting groundbog of not. Even if it was the cause for Mr. Groundbog getting iscared, the sunshine was worth it.

OUR BOY SCOUTS ... are observing Boy Scout Week, beginning tomorrow, February 6, and continuing through Fobrary 12. The local troops are planning to attend cherch services and to mark the anti-term with some special program or activity. It would be a good idea for all of us to join nome way in observing the Boy Scout anti-ter they have, and we're proud of them. Observe Boy Scout Week right along with our Boy Show Lat we realize what a line creatization they have, and we're proud of them. Observe Boy Scout Week right along with our Boy Scouts — bet you find out that you get a terrific kick out of it yourself. ith so. i of us to Let our '9, and NEXT TUESDAY ...

NEXT TUESDAY .... Is Shrow Tuesday, and probably the most famous celebration is the Mardi Gras in New Orleans. That is one celebration that we're going to see some day — it has an almost magical appeal. Just the very solund of the words seems to beckon — and one day we're going to answer that call. You're probably all seen newsreels of the Mardi Gras celebration. Maybe they, too, hars served to add to the desire within, but little by little ti is being added to, and one day it will be a reality rather than just a dream.

LENT BEGINS . .

LENT BEGINS ... February 11, which is Ash Wednesday, bringing Easter early — March 32, to be ease. The calendar is crowded with Pre-Lenten atfairs, in order to get overything in within the few remaining days before the Lenten season is here. Many of our good people are planning to give up some entertainment or some luxury, fist to serve as a reminder. But to all of us, whether we make any personal sacrifice or not. Loat has a definite, splittent meaning — part of which, at least, carries ou throughout the year, though perhaps not as strongly as during lent.

THE MARCH OF DIMES ...

THE MARCH OF DIMES... continues in Farmington this week, with canisters in most of the local stores and in the post office and the city hall. You are invited to drop [cate of Occupancy to operate a group regning, inclease and dimes, or whatevery own wish to grive, into the commercial printing shop at the catisters — your contributions will help wips ont the much dreaded above address.
