FLORAL PARK NEWS

By MRS. EVA BARBER 22735 FLORAL AVENUE

Jeepers, Creepers! Last week it was the pipes freezing. This week the furnaces are exploding. If you don't hear from me next week, you'll know the house has disappeared and I will be out looking for it. I say misery loves company. I hear more than five disgruntled housewives are cleaning up after their oil furnaces went berserk, so I don't feel quite so abused. I can sympathize with them thoroughly. I'm going to sign off early this week as I am very busy cleaning up grease, smoke and oil fumes from my furnace.

Saturday is Valentine's Day. I am putting this in for my own benefit. When Mr. Yours Truly reads this, he had better produce a valentine, or else. If the husbands of some of our ladies are forgotten, so, just slip this item under their grapefruit tomorrow morning.

The ladies of Floral Park didn't make a very good showing last month at the P.T.A. There will be a pot luck dinner at the high school gym. Just bring something good to eat as coffee will be served. A 15 minute one-act play will be presented by Mr. Leslie Baker, Mr. Byron Oliver, Mrs. Wilma Baker, Mrs. Pauline Regent, Mrs. Fred Maas, Mrs. Bernard, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Frances Hough and Mr. O. E. Dunclick. There will also be musical singing and several musical acts.

Mrs. Harvey Walker of Floral Avenue has a new baby brother. Her mother, Mrs. John Clark, is at Harper Hospital in Detroit. The new baby's name is John Russell Clark, Jr.

Mrs. Norman Morrell of Floral Avenue has made several trips to Hartsville to visit her girl friend, Mrs. Frances Dunsmore, who is recovering from a serious operation. Mrs. Dunsmore is at the Sessions Hospital in Northville.

Several ladies from Floral Avenue attended a card game last week. Among the group were Mrs. Harvey Walker, Mrs. Robert Everett, Mrs. Harley McIntosh and Mrs. Ward Barber. After the card game they went to the Do-Nut Cab for doughnuts and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schroeder, who are in the fur business in Chicago, spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Haine of Floral Avenue. During their visit, Mr. and Mrs. Haine entertained their guests for dinner at Boisdorff Inn and they attended a lovely dance at the Book-Cadillac Hotel last Friday evening. The four of them also have some very gay times in the company of Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanaugh of Floral Avenue. The Schroeders left early Monday morning for their drive back home, leaving behind the impression that they had thoroughly enjoyed themselves during their sojourn in Floral Park.

Many ladies enjoyed themselves at a deep-freeze demonstration last Wednesday afternoon at the Everette Implement Company on Grand River. After the demonstration, refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Everett and Mrs. Sloan. The guest cards were dropped in a box and ten names were drawn out for prizes. The winners were Mrs. Norman Morrell, Mrs. Ward Barber, Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox, Mrs. Ray Howard, Mr. Anthony Ramey, Mark Bachelor, Mrs. Mark Bachelor, Irene Staman, Cora Rodney and Mrs. M. P. Bowers.

Miss Sheila Ruth Barber of Floral Avenue celebrated her fifth birthday Sunday with a birthday party. Her guests were Sharon Leo Smith, Billie Gardner, Mary Whitting, Judy Lindbert and Flo Gillespie. They played several games and sang songs. Mrs. Barber served ice cream, cake and chocolate milk. The children were little red felt hats with long red feathers sticking out. Each guest received a little prize and valentine. Miss Barber received many lovely gifts. They all enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clapp and sons, Dennis and Dickie, of Floral Avenue, attended the Shrine Circus Sunday. It was the boys' first trip to see a circus and they really enjoyed it. After the circus, Dennis and Dickie dropped in at the home of Sheila Barber to help her celebrate her birthday.

We had another accident last week at the corner of Shilavasse and Floral Avenues. One car had the fender completely ripped off. Something surely should be done about a stop sign for that corner. Mr. and Mrs. Harley McIntosh of Floral Avenue entertained guests Sunday from Detroit. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Burt Ashton and Mrs. Richard Hanson. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson have just returned from Florida and brought back oranges and grapefruit for Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Young of Floral Avenue had a delightful time last week. They went to a dance at the Bonnie Brook Golf Club on Telegraph Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Still of Floral Avenue held a "couple club" pot luck dinner last Friday night. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moller, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Moller, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schenfeld. A visitor from White Plains, New York, Mr. Russell Meier, was also there.

Sunday, February 8, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Still held open house for friends from Detroit and Farmington. Mrs. Still served buffet supper, which included cakes, cookies, colored creases, onion, ten and coffee. About thirty guests attended, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fehlbeg, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shugart, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Dunclick, Mr. and Mrs. W. Law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Meier, Mr. and Mrs. E. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cope, Mr. and Mrs. P. Dunclick, Mr. and Mrs. V. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Stidwell and Mr. and Mrs. R. McCoy. Everyone had a delightful time.

Tuesday, February 10, a group of girls from Detroit who have been meeting weekly since grade school days gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Still of Floral Avenue. Among the group were Mrs. Mary Stewart, Miss Shirley Elliott, Miss Shirley Whittom, Mrs. Jean Ann Derg, Mrs. Joyce Elliott, Mrs. Muriel Simon and Mrs. June Withers.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street, took their new daughter, Lorraine Ann, out for her first outing last week. They visited at the home of Mrs. Hoeglund's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hupert. Lorraine Ann, who weighed eight pounds at birth one month ago, now weighs nine pounds, two ounces, and lets the Hoeglunds know who is now the boss in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund and daughter went to Bentley or Lincoln last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoeglund. Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Hoeglund, along with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hupert, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Geisman of Five Points.

Peggy Ann Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Hawthorne Street, walked all alone this week. Both parents and daughter are very proud. Peggy Ann is 15 months old.

We have some more new neighbors in Floral Park. It seems that overnight someone moves in. One day you drive down the street and see a new house being completed and the next day you pass that same house and we have another new family. Mr. and Mrs. D. Dates have moved into their new home on Floral Avenue and are just getting settled.

Some more new neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. William Stuart Grimes and Mrs. H. P. Staley from Detroit, who are just getting settled in their new home on Floral Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walczak of Floral Avenue are getting along fine. They are straightened out in their new home. Their baby daughter was ill last week, but is feeling better now.

Mrs. Fred Woshyka of Floral Avenue attended the civic light opera last Saturday at the Masonic Temple in Detroit. She heard Allan Jones in "Rosemary". Although Allan Jones had had a severe attack of laryngitis he gave a splendid performance. Mrs. Woshyka enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Bill Wissman and new baby daughter are getting along fine. The baby is named Patricia. Mr. Wissman and two children at home were all ill with intestinal flu, but are feeling better now.

Miss Sheila Barber of Floral Avenue entertained the civic light opera last Saturday at the Masonic Temple in Detroit. She heard Allan Jones in "Rosemary". Although Allan Jones had had a severe attack of laryngitis he gave a splendid performance. Mrs. Woshyka enjoyed it very much.

WEST FARMINGTON

By MRS. SARAH KNAPP

Mrs. Alden Green entertained several ladies and their small children at a child's valentine party Saturday afternoon. Games and contests for pre-school children were enjoyed and a party lunch was served.

Word has been received from Fred Tamm and niece, Betty, that they arrived safely in Florida and are enjoying the balmy weather there, where they are the guests of Mr. Tamm's brother, Edwin K. Tamm.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gillespie of Lilac Avenue entertained Mrs. Gillespie's grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Ryckman, Sunday for dinner. Mrs. Ryckman, who lives at the Tuller Hotel in Detroit, is eighty years old.

Most of the families in Floral Park have been tentatively speaking of calling a get-together and organizing for the purpose of bettering our community. Although we all like our new neighborhood, we realize it is still in the baby stage and there are many things that are needed in every new community, such as fire hydrants, street lights, stop signs, etc., which are all beneficial to a better neighborhood. A delegation of three ladies will ring your doorbell next week to talk to you about these things. I hope you will welcome them and give them a few minutes of your time. They will try to find out what would be the most convenient time for our husbands to meet and talk these things over.

Just got a late news item. Mt. Carmel Hospital officials say they will have to amputate the right leg of Emil Dietrich of 3290 West Nine Mile Road, Farmington, who was pinned beneath five tons of sheet steel. The steel rolled off a truck at the General Sheet Steel Company on Linden Street in Detroit.

Little Marilynne Hough, who is confined to her home by illness, is much improved. She is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Hough.

In the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Howard on Howland Road.
