FARM PROBLEMS
DISCUSSED AT BUREAU MEETING

The West Farmington Farm Bureau discussion group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Howard on Thursday evening, February 19, with 24 members and four guests present.

Due to the delayed arrival of Chairman Roland Green, Don Dutto called the meeting to order. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. Mr. Button read a letter in regard to the purchase of fertilizer for which it was stated that all fertilizer must be purchased through a dealer. Floyd Howard is going to serve as the dealer for this area. Wendell Green reported that he was unable to contact anyone as yet in regards to the water supply for the prevention of fires.

Edith Knapp reported on the possibility of securing the use of the West Farmington School for recreational purposes. At this point, Roland Green arrived and assumed chairmanship of the meeting. He appointed Don Button and Harry McCracken to contact the school board in regards to the use of the school.

Jane Green reported on the women's meeting, pointing out that the main discussion concerned an amendment to the state law increasing the fines for those found guilty of dumping unightly rubbish along the highways.

Ray Howard spoke on the Blue Cross and stated that anyone interested in enrolling must have their applications in by March 25, to be effective May 1. This is the only time one can enroll this year. Floyd Howard was discussion leader on "How Can Our Marketing Facilities Be Improved?" During the recreation period, Katharine Gardner sang "Grandfather's Clock" and "When I Grow Too Old to Dream", accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Howard on the piano.

It was voted to hold a box social at the next meeting, which will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bush on March 18. Half the proceeds of the social are to be given to the American Cancer Fund, and the other half is to be retained in the group treasury.

The meeting was adjourned and a social hour followed, during which the hostess served refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, pie and coffee.

ETHEL TURNER IS BRIDE OF EDGAR MATHER, JR.

At a lovely candlelight ceremony held at the First Baptist Church in Farmington on Saturday evening, February 21, Ethel Ruth Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Turner of Nine Mile Road, became the bride of Mr. Edgar S. Mather, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Mather of Oakland Avenue. Rev. Fred B. Fisher read the marriage vows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white winter satin, adorned with small lace medallion appliques on the skirt and also on the six foot train. Her finger-ring veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, with sweetpeas attached to ribbon streamers. She wore pearls, which were the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Joyce Habermehl, maid of honor, wore a gown of pink marquette with matching head-piece, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses with a spray of blue iris. Bridesmaids were Miss Marian Bauman of Plymouth, who wore a gown of green chiffon with matching head-piece, and Miss Dorothy M. Smith, who wore orchid chiffon with matching head-piece. Both girls carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Mr. Ira Duckett was Mr. Mather's man and best man were Charles Sclow, Edward Ash, Charles Macintosh and Jack Macintosh.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors. Approximately 250 guests were present, and Mr. and Mrs. Mather received many lovely gifts. Good wishes for their future were extended by all present.

CARE NECESSARY
IN COMBATING EWE DISEASE

The danger of pregnancy disease in ewes comes just prior to lambing time, reports Dr. B. J. Killham, extension veterinarian at Michigan State college.

Pregnancy disease is costly. At times it has claimed as many as 25 per cent of the ewes in a flock. It is usually most prevalent following a cold, hard winter.

The disease is not contagious but instead is related to feed and management. Affected ewes show evidence of depression and refuse to eat or drink. Finally the sick ewe goes down. She will usually clamp her jaws and grind her teeth. The head is usually held back or to one side. Coma and death follow.

Prevention of the disease is more successful than treatment. Quality feed is essential. Good quality legume hay, oats, and bran are helpful. Yellow corn is recommended for its carbohydrates and vitamin A content. Molasses has also been found to be very useful.

It may be necessary to compel exercise. The opportunity for exercise is sometimes not enough and raises compel the ewes to go into the field for hay. To do this, it is sometimes necessary to plow a lane.

Miss Barbara Sowers of Louisa has returned to school following an appendectomy at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ryall entertained Mr. and Mrs. Kelly of Parkville at dinner on Wednesday of last week.
Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stollker, of Dresden, have reached their Miami, Florida, destination according to word received by friends and relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. Stollker will travel west as well during the month of their vacation.
Mrs. C. E. Fehrlich of Eight Mile Road visited with Mrs. Ernest Whitlock of Purlingbrook last week.

SSSH!!! It's A Secret!!

We don't want it noised around town. Now we aint sayin' in fine print "when available" — cause if that was the case we'd advertise it 2/25c, but you know what? We've really got some canned milk at 2/29c.

Bein' as how this is the end of the month suppose we should give you another whack at some of our left-overs. They call these left-overs bacon squares — but the darned things aren't square — they're just what's left over when they make head cheese. We've got a head-ache, nope, I mean we've got the head-cheese for 39c a lb., and the bacon squares for 35c a lb. If you want just plain cheese that bites, but doesn't bark, we've got some that chatters for 65c a lb.

Last fall we were so busy fixin' deer for the hunters we forgot we were gonna have a sale on peas. We hid them so good in the locker plant we didn't even find them until this week. I'm telling yuh — this joint is a bundle of surprises — you'll be surprised too when you see who's brand for only two bits a package. Maybe you should oughtta hide some in your locker for $2.90 a dozen.

Would yuh like to try Lafer Bros. Coffee this week for 49c a lb? It's fresh from the roasting oven and still in the whole bean. We'll grind it. Ambitious bunch that we are — how do you want yurs ground DRIP???
