

Mr. and Mrs. Willis of Grand River spent Sunday at Wauson, Ohio, as guests of Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Leland. Mrs. Willis, or "Lil" as we all know her, has just put in a complete new line of children's clothes.

Mrs. Fred Woshyna of Floral Avenue entertained a life-long friend last week for a day. Her friend is Mrs. Elsie Treloar of Detroit. Mrs. Woshyna served a lovely dinner and they had a very pleasant visit together.

FLORAL PARK NEWS

By MRS. EVA BARBER

22735 FLORAL AVENUE

Well, folks, I can plainly see that the weather man is no friend of mine. I had a dandy start for this week, the wonderful spring weather we were having. Just as I was ready to turn my notes into the office the weather played me an awful trick. Out of a clear blue sky came a clear blue sky. But anyway, those few nice warm days gave us strength to struggle through a few more weeks of winter.

First of all I have a little duty to perform. Mr. Frank Henry of the Express Office up in Farmington says that if I don't mention his name in my column, he isn't going to read it any more. I don't want to lose the one fan I am sure of so: "Mr. Henry, consider yourself mentioned."

Miss Phyllis Barber of Floral Avenue entertained a house guest over the week end. Her guest was her girl friend, Barbara Parry of Monica Avenue in Detroit. They had a lovely time together.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street entertained folks from Berkey Thursday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoeglund, Mr. and Mrs. Lillian and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fairbrother. They played cards and spent a very enjoyable evening together.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Mattias of Floral Avenue had guests in for their son Richard's birthday last week. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gates and son and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morrell and sons, all from Floral Avenue. Mrs. Mattias served ice cream and cake. The party was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber of Floral Avenue were hosts Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mandl of Ardmore Avenue in Detroit. They played cards and Mrs. Barber served cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Walczak of Floral Avenue attended the christening of Mrs. Walczak's brother's baby in Detroit last week. The baby girl, Sharon Batory, was dressed in a pink dress with a transparent pink velvet coat, and looked very sweet.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street entertained company both Friday and Saturday evening. On Friday their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hupert and Miss Grace Fischer. On Saturday they entertained the Howells family from Rollcrest Drive for dinner. After dinner they played pinocchio and together, Mrs. Hoeglund's baby, Lorraine Ann, is over her cold and coming along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sill of Floral Avenue attended the monthly potluck at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCoy in Detroit. There were twelve guests present. After dinner they played pinocchio and Mrs. Sill won the "booby prize."

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart and children of Hawthorne Street went to Windsor for the week end. They left Friday morning and came home Sunday night. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malloch. They had a very pleasant visit although the weather was so bad that they left for home soon or than they had planned.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Alexander of Floral Avenue went bowling Sunday evening at the Cadillac Recreation. They were part of a group from the West Chicago Recreation club. They were playing off a tournament. Mrs. Alexander scored 472 and Mr. Alexander scored 476. As their scores now stand they are in position for first places in the final rounds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber of Floral Avenue entertained guests Sunday evening for a card party. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Parry of Monica Avenue in Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hunt of Floral Avenue. After the card games Mrs. Barber served chocolate cup-cakes, jello, cheese, crackers, coffee and tea. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt of Floral Avenue were very much surprised Saturday evening. Friends of theirs gave them a housewarming. They all brought gifts for Mrs. Hunt's bathroom. She received a lovely bath mat, shower curtain, towels, rug and candles to match for her window. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson, Mr. Osborn and Mr. G. W. Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sill of Floral Avenue were hosts for a lovely time on Saturday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fredman of Detroit last Sunday. There were about twenty of the outstanding singers of Detroit present at the party. Everyone had a lovely time. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fredman of Detroit last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street had unexpected guests drop in out of the sky — and I do mean sky — Monday afternoon at five o'clock. Their guests were Mr. Paul Bernan, Mr. Fred Hoeglund and Mrs. Charles Crockett. They came by plane from Welch, West Virginia. Mr. Paul Bernan was the pilot and flew his own plane. The trip took four hours and ten minutes. When they were getting ready to leave West Virginia, Mr. Crockett carried an overcoat. The weather was so mild and lovely that the other two made a little bit of fun of him for carrying that overcoat, so he left it behind. Much to his disgust, when they landed in Detroit, they were welcomed by snow and cold winds. They ran into some very bad weather over Toledo and thought they would have to land, but made it O.K. only to hit freezing rain and snow only ten miles from here. For a while they thought they would be side-tracked but they made it. They only planned to stay one day, but the weather man changed their minds for them. They made the trip so that Mr. Bernan could see his new niece, Lorraine Ann Hoeglund. This is the first time Mr. Crockett has been here and he thinks the people are very hospitable, though he can't say as much for the weather.

We will soon have some new neighbors in Floral Park. Mr. and Mrs. Koop of Detroit have bought a new home on Floral Avenue and expect to move in a few weeks. A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Beverly Alexander of Floral Avenue, who will be married on March 19. The shower was given by Mrs. Bob Hamilton of Clarendon Avenue. The guests were Mrs. C. A. Young and sister Grace, of Novi, Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Cooper of Lower Stratis Lake, Mrs. Watson of Windsor, Mrs. Koop and 23 guests from Detroit. They played buncos and Mrs. Hamilton gave some lovely prizes, among them a delicious home made cake, a colored set of candy dishes, and a lovely box of linen handkerchiefs. Beverly received many lovely gifts for her home.

Oh, by the way, folks, I would like to give out the latest report on our convalescent in our neighbor hood. Boots, the Alexander cat, is progressing nicely with his broken leg and this week the cast comes off.

Miss Marilyn Gates of Floral Avenue received many lovely gifts at a shower given for her by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gates. She received a beautiful set of Blue Ridge dishes, a G.E. electric roaster, kitchen and bath towels, cookie jars, a meat chopper, pillows, beautiful Revere stainless steel kitchen utensils and most important of all, a rolling pin. The husbands of the ladies at the shower were entertained at the home of Mr. Marshall Erickson of West Nine Mile Road. The men present were Mr. Sam Gates, Mr. Pierre Mettetal, Mr. O. C. Allan, Mr. Ray Pfitzer and Carl Gienap. They played cards and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber of Floral Avenue entertained guests Friday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilcox of Mt. Clemens. They played pinocchio. After the card game Mrs. Barber served tuna salad, oysters, celery, apple pie and coffee. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much except Mrs. Barber. She lost that's not a nice way for guests to treat their hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pfitzer of Hawthorne entertained Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McNeil of Warwick Road in Roseville Park last week. They spent the evening visiting together and had a very lovely time. Mr. and Mrs. Pfitzer spent Sunday visiting friends in Detroit.
