

Farmington Schools To Be Closed March 19

Schools of the Farmington Township School District will be closed Friday, March 19, for the County Teachers Institute. It was announced Wednesday by O. E. Duncel, superintendent of schools. The meetings will be held in Pontiac and Royal Oak. A number of outstanding speakers are to appear on the program.

The Men's Club Enjoys Excellent Program

Members of The Men's Club listened with great interest to the remarks of Mr. Thomas A. Carlson, guest speaker who appeared before the group at their meeting on Tuesday evening. Mr. Carlson spoke on "Current Inflation and Future Reaction", graphically illustrating his talk, and he presented some very interesting material.

Seek Funds For Memorial Home

Members of Groves-Walker Post 345, The American Legion, this week launched a special drive to secure additional funds for the construction of the new Memorial Home. The building of the home has progressed as far as it can, until money is available to continue on with the work.

A little more than $15,000.00 is needed to complete the building. In addition to the money that has already been expended. The money used thus far has been obtained from the Legion activities, through the sale of their former home, and by popular subscription.

Letters were in the mail this week, contacting local residents, asking for additional support, and asking that everyone contact some neighbor or friend, and solicit his support for the Memorial Home.

The need for the building is apparent. At the present time veterans organizations are experiencing difficulty in locating a suitable meeting place, and other groups, too, have found it difficult to find permanent meeting places. If you have not made a contribution yet to the Memorial Home, now is the time to do so, or if you feel you can give an additional amount, anything that you can do will be very much appreciated.

Just mail your contribution to Groves-Walker Post 345, American Legion, Memorial Home Association, Farmington, Michigan.

struction in Lansing for final approval. Aside on the construction of the school units can not be advertised for until the plans and specifications have been approved. The Board will probably take action on the plans at their next regular meeting.

Representatives from the American Warming and Ventilating Co., Toledo, Ohio, appeared before the Board to discuss heating problems. Because the School District can only secure very heavy oil for their high school and elementary heating units, considerable difficulty is being encountered, especially in cold weather. The oil is so heavy that the pumps have difficulty pulling the oil. It was suggested that pre-heated units be installed. The Board recommended that the matter be stated further before any action is taken.

ance. It was voted to pay the preliminary for this policy. City Commissioner Roy Miller stated that some protection is needed for the windows at the pump house. He is going to proceed to have wire mesh screens made and put in. In the past there has been a great deal of trouble with broken windows, and it is hoped this will eliminate the trouble.

Glenn H. Leland, retained by the city and legal counsel, reported that he and Col. Sam Smith, city building inspector, had made a study of the City Building Code and Zoning Ordinance, and found that a great many changes should be made. Mr. Leland stated that he would submit a written report to the Commission.

It was voted to send a check for $500.00 to the City and Township Library Board, completing the City's contribution for the upkeep of the library for the current year.

period score was St. Alphonsus 20-Clarenceville 17. The Trojans made the final period a big one as they went on to win, scoring 9 points while holding St. Alphonsus to only four and taking the game on a two point margin, 26 to 24.

For two periods in the Class "C" final Saturday night it looked like anybody's ball game, with Clarenceville tangling with Northville. However the last two periods were much different with Northville pulling out ahead to win 27 to 18.

There was practically no scoring in the first period with both teams finding considerable difficulty in making their shots count. The good Fellowship Social Club Hall, Inkster Road, Bond, School.

Northville opened up in the last two periods taking a comfortable lead. Clarenceville was held to three points in the third period while Northville piled up 15 points. MRS. F. W. BAGNALL IS GUEST OF THE TOWN CLUB

Mrs. F. W. Bagnall, who has given so freely of her time, and opened her home to workers making cancer pads, was the guest of the Town Club, at their regular meeting held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Gerald Grace on Macomb Street.

The Town Club members were very interested in Mrs. Bagnall's story about her work, and the great need for these pads. She showed how the pads were made, and displayed samples of the various types of pads, and also "jockey coats" which are made from old white shirts. The club voted to cooperate with the group Mrs. Bagnall works with, and several members took material home with them to work on.

Members contributed some white material to this work, but there is still a great deal more needed. Old shirts, pillow cases or table linen are particularly good to use. If you have some material you would like to contribute, it may be left at Mrs. Bagnall's home on Warner Street. Women meet there each Wednesday to sew on these cancer pads, and the workers are always welcomed. Although the group is not large, they have made a surprisingly large number of pads since they have been working on the project, and have certainly made a splendid contribution.

Members of the Town Club are still collecting used clothing, particularly for school children. All of the clothing they had on hand has been distributed, and they need more. If you have any clothing that no longer fits members of your family, but is warm and usable, please call either Mrs. P. M. Hewitt Farmington 2081, or Mrs. Naele May Farmington 6115. Members of the Welfare Committee, and they will see that the clothing is picked up and distributed where it is most needed.

MRS. BICKING GIVES PROGRAM AT WOMAN'S CLUB

The Farmington Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Miss Meriah Andrews on Wednesday, March 9. An enjoyable program was given by Mrs. Imogene Bicking. She read by request several poems of her own composition which were inspired by members of her family, or through her work with her flowers.

Mrs. Bicking then gave general rules for arranging flowers and proceeded to demonstrate by actually building, in the presence of the club, several lovely arrangements. Each member was given a red carnation, the club flower. The largest floral arrangement went to Mrs. Ella Irish, an absent member.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess, Miss Andrews, served tea, dainty open faced sandwiches and cookies. Mrs. Mary Johnson presided at the tea table, which was centered with a low bowl of yellow daffodils and tulips.

Mrs. Florence Lee has submitted to the Woman's Club a full report, as delegate to the youth center committee.

Essay Contest Closes April 1

The Auxiliary of Farmington Post 4022, Veterans of Foreign Wars, are again sponsoring the annual essay contest. This year the subject is to be "Human Rights, The Key to World Peace". All essays must be turned in to Superintendent O. E. Duncel of the Farmington High School by April 1 for local judging.

Local prizes are awarded by the Farmington Auxiliary with $5.00 going to the first place winner, $3.00 for second, and $2.00 for third. An Ernie Pyle plaque will be given to the school having the winning contestant. A state prize of $50.00 is given to the first place, with $30.00 for second and $20.00 for third. The national first prize is $1,000.00, certainly well worth working for.

It is to be remembered that some very good essays were submitted in the contest last year, with Marguerite Wedin winning the first prize of $50.00.

Desmond Jones of Rochester High School won the state first prize last year, and he received a medal as well as the cash award. Perhaps there is a state or nation.

at winner right here in Farmington. Students are requested to follow the rules of the contest closely, as essays will be judged according to these rules. April 1 is the deadline for all essays to be turned in, and it is hoped a large number will be submitted. Further information may be obtained by calling the essay chairman, Mrs. Florence Spies at Farmington 1016-J.

I Should Live So Long!!

So help me! I'm loosin' money yet! I get it for you wholesale. We're down in the low rent district — just sawdust on the floor, but we've a 90 day wonder here. People wonder how we can do it. Regal Quality Aluminum. Your choice of 4 pans and a pressure cooker. You can't help but lose. For each $10.00 you spend with us we will give you the privilege of purchasing one of these fine utensils at factory cost. Stop in and look. You're under no obligation to buy. Just look around. If you didn't find anything you wanted under the white tags last week — keep lookin' — this week we've moved 'em.

We didn't move the meat department tho. Same old place — same old faces — but not the same old stuff. This week we thought you'd like some good old-fashioned pork sausage — all rolled up pretty for only 39c a lb. If it gets cold like the weatherman sez maybe you'd like to put your "pig in a blanket". We've got some brand new cabbage for 6c a lb. and the bacon is all sliced up for 45c a lb. You know how to do it, wrap your sausage in a cabbage leaf; tie it up with a hunk of bacon; throw it in your new Regal Aluminum pot and cook for a couple hours; then throw the meat away and eat the cabbage.

The boys decided to give you a treat this week so they rounded up a herd of veal — cut it into roasts — took out the bones — tied a rope around it — result — rolled boneless veal roasts for 49c a lb. Aren't they nice boys?
