ARMY DAY iid not go unheralded in Farmington. It was a heartening sight to gee the fings waving in the breeze, all up and down the street — it sould nothelp but make an exclic knew that we remember the service ha bid, and we are grateful to him for the part he played in bringing the war to alclose. These waving flags were a silent tribute to the boys of our community who gave their life. To then we over a debit that can neer be repaid, but it must be a great comfort to their friends and families to know that they have not been lorgotten.
