

Mrs. Dorothy Watkins Honored At Shower

Mrs. Dorothy Watkins was guest of honor at a stork shower given recently at the home of Mrs. Mary Green on Drake Road.

The house was very prettily decorated with spring flowers for the occasion.

The sixteen ladies played card games during the afternoon, and refreshments were served in buffet style.

Mrs. Watkins was presented with many lovely gifts.

P.O.B. ADOPTS CONSTITUTION

The regular meeting of the Noble District No. 6 P.T.A. of the Noble District No. 6 Parent Teachers Association, was held at the school on Monday evening of this week.

The children of the first grade presented a play on the theme of which concerned citizens going to the polls to vote. It was very well done, and anyone seeing it could not help but think that if the children was mounted as their duties as citizens and vote as enthusiastically as these youngsters did, this would certainly be a wonderful country.

The P.T.A. were approved and adopted. A very lovely lunch was served to climax the evening's program.

All members of the Noble District No. 6 P.T.A. are urged to be present at the joint meeting to be held with the Farmington P.T.A. and the Bond School group, at the Farmington High School gymnasium on Tuesday evening, April 20.

This special meeting has been arranged with the Farmington Area Recreational Commission, to discuss the proposed recreation program for the Farmington area.

The children of the Noble District wish to thank the residents of the district who brought tickets for "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves", thus enabling all the boys and girls to see this fine play. The children very much appreciated it.

HATTON'S FARMINGTON HARDWARE

Always Be Careful - Always Buy Chesterfields, etc. Did cha know we sold cigarettes? All kinds for $1.69 a carton.

Course we gotta get tax on 'em too, but that ain't our idea. We got an idea tho you won't go wrong if you Always Buy Conroy's meats.

We got some of almost everything, even oleo at 33c a lb. but what you don't wanna miss is our Grade "A" beef short ribs.

They're not short on meat - just short on price - 29c a lb. Some more Grade "A" stuff is large eggs. These are in some silly old cartons that we promise you will fall apart before you get home.

but the eggs are only 59c a dozen. At that price we can't give you a scoop to scoop 'em up with, but you bring in a scoop and let us borrow it for our cottage cheese. We'll need a big one - the cheese is only 19c a lb.

Hey - you know we're really sorry we didn't know how good we were and that our own bacon was gonna be so much in demand - that we ran out of it. We're gonna have more next week. In its place this week you'll have to use sausage. We've got some of our own that's yummy, but we're gonna help Mr. Hygrade Products get rid of his at 39c a lb.

There's a great big pile of Early June Peas in here that we wanna unload before July. We got the price right, 3 cans for 29c. Good, huh? Well, come on then, please take some!!! There - I said it and I'm glad.
