Mrs. Little Angel
Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, May 1, for Mrs. Little Angel from the Casteline Funeral Home at Northville, with burial at Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Angel was born January 18, 1872, in Clinton County, Michigan, the daughter of Samuel H. and Emma J. Lamb. With her parents, she moved to Farmington when a girl. At the age of sixteen she began teaching school, and followed that profession for a number of years.

In 1882 she was married to John S. Angel of Novi Township. They later moved to Redford where they resided until 1922 when they moved to Northville. They were the parents of two children, Mrs. Emma Reid and Russell Angel, who passed away in 1926. Mrs. Angel's husband passed away the same week as did Russell.

Surviving are her daughter, Emma, a daughter-in-law, Hattie Angel, six grand children, one great-grandchild, and four brothers, Fred of Cadillac, George of California, Perry of Colorado and Arthur Lamb of Farmington, besides a number of nieces and nephews, and a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gordon and daughter, Victoria, returned home on Friday from Tavares, Florida, where they visited Mrs. Gordon's parents.

Charles Markham has returned to his classes in the Farmington School after his recent illness in Seasons Hospital at Northville.

Mrs. Kirt McCoschla is convalescing from a serious heart attack in her home on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Joy spent the week end in Boyne City where they enjoyed the snail dips with many other fishermen, and they really caught their share.

On Wednesday the following ladies, Etta Vanderburgh, Alice Foot, Rose Larson, Freda White, Alice Bacon, Gladys Williams, Lu Langley, Bertha Werschum, Ethel Lint, Grace Aulen, Ella Kacy, Ethel Whitefoot and Ethel Clark decided on a birthday party and it was the date for Lettie McIntyre's, so they packed a delicious lunch and just drove out there for a complete surprise. Everyone enjoyed their lunch, birthday cake, and the afternoon just visiting. They presented Mrs. McIntyre with a lovely gift from the group, and left for home feeling the party was well worth their efforts for the fun they had just surprising someone.

Mrs. Alma Hogle entertained the members of the Ely family Sunday with their family dinner, which they enjoy each month since the death of their mother. Everyone comes to meet and visit with themselves, and enjoy the fellowship of their brothers and sisters, with their families.

Charles Ramsden of Detroit spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. Ethel Koon on Eight Mile Road. They attended the Builders Show in Detroit on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Irving on Nine Mile Road entertained the Lawrence Gordon family for dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gliddon's little daughter, Pamela Marie, was christened on Sunday in St. John's Lutheran Church in Detroit. Miss Carol Marie Paschke and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paschke, the aunt and uncle, were the baby's sponsors. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paschke entertained the guests at their home on Whitcomb with a dinner.

Mrs. Gliddon was formerly Miss Dorothy Paschke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Paschke on Power Road.

Mrs. Ray Mahaney fell on Friday evening and painfully sprained her ankle, so she is walking with the aid of a crutch these days.

Mrs. Harrison Johnson was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Sydney James in Rosedale Park on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. J. Banfield and son, Danny, and Mrs. A. Smith and daughter, Phyllis, from Milford, and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre, were Detroit callers Friday afternoon.

Mrs. John Shetta will entertain Mrs. Robert Kinnard and Mrs. Harrison Johnson on Wednesday for a Tournament Committee meeting.

where they will complete their season's program for the Tam-O-Shanter Golf Club, on Orchard Lake Road.

Little Sharon, Woodard on Gill Road was injured last Thursday when she fell down the basement stairs, striking on a chimney.

On Thursday the Tam-O-Shanter Golf Club is holding the First Invitational Day for ladies, with a luncheon, bridge and golf. Any one wishing to attend may call Mrs. Harrison Johnson.

Mrs. Edward Champagne and daughter, Donna Marie, and Mrs. Clare Hosier called on Mrs. Raymond Grewing and children at Walled Lake last Wednesday.

Mrs. L. Gordonier and daughter, Victoria, and Mrs. L. H. Irving, were Lansing Friday where they visited Mrs. Gordonier, who had the misfortune to fall and fracture her ankle. She will be confined to the hospital for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Johnson will entertain the following guests for dinner on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Anderson of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Loomis of Farmington.

These few warm days have changed the bare trees into trees of beauty, with their many colored buds and leaves, while gathering fresh asparagus, rhubarb and onions from the faithful old kitchen garden is a real treat.

Mrs. Raymond Grewing and children from Walled Lake were Saturday dinner guests of the former's parents, the High McIntyres.

Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh was a Detroit caller on Monday.

Mrs. Elaine Haskins and her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Reed of Detroit, received the Majority degree in the Order of the Rainbow in Detroit, on Saturday.

Fred Lamb of Cadillac, Perry Lamb of Colorado and Leland Lamb of New York spent the week end with Arthur Lamb and family.

Mrs. May Mahaney and son, Rodrick, spent from Wednesday to Saturday visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. George Furler and family, at Wilton, Canada.

Private Robert Morris, who is stationed at the Scott Air Force Base in Belleville, Illinois, was home on a three-day furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. William Morris, and brother and sister. At the end of the furlough Donald Howard and Dick Morris accompanied Robert back to Belleville and they travelled around 1,000 miles in their Model A without one flat tire.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mahaney entertained Sunday at a birthday dinner for their mother, Mrs. May Mahaney, whose birthday was Monday, May 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gardner of Floral Avenue entertained guests last week from Detroit. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wild, who spent the evening at the Gardner home, and had a very lovely visit together.

"In excess of 45,000 lbs. Payload
... on my new FORD F-7 BIG JOB"

"I purchased my F-7 Ford in February," reports Chester Fields of Dayton, Ohio. "To date, maximum payload has been 53,000 pounds . . . average has been well in excess of 45,000 pounds."

"Of the many other makes of trucks I now own, none can equal the performance of my F-7 Ford. Performance and economy have been amazing."

Sensational reports on the new F-7 and F-8 Ford BIG JOBS are being fired in from everywhere. Men who know trucks claim 6,000 miles per month for months on end with no time out . . . payloads over 50,000 pounds . . . power that leaves other trucks eating dust . . . a mile of full-load travel on about a pint of gasoline.
