FLORAL PARK NEWS

By MRS. EVA BARBER

22735 FLORAL AVENUE

Hi, everybody! Isn't it nice out? With this wonderful weather we are having, it is very easy to forget all we went through last winter. Freezing water pipes and exploding furnaces are things to laugh at now, and it is a pleasure to see all the children playing outside the whole day long, getting all the benefits of that nice, warm sunshine.

We have another new baby in Floral Park. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fisher, Jr., of Hawthorne Street announce the arrival of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gardner of Floral Avenue entertained guests Sunday for dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gardner of Birmingham. After dinner they spent the day visiting together and everyone had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. R. B. Alexander of Floral Avenue entertained guests for lunch Thursday. Her guests were Mrs. William Englander and sons, Ronnie and Stephan, of Chicago, Illinois and Mrs. Winger of Redford. They spent the day visiting together.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of Hawthorne Street entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meloch of Windsor over the week end. Their guests enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Everett of Floral Avenue entertained guests from Detroit Sunday afternoon. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Foster and son and daughter. They played bridge. Mrs. Everett served a lovely lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street spent last Sunday visiting in Berkeley at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoeglund.

Mrs. Norman Morrell of Floral Avenue attended a baby shower last week at the home of Mrs. Meyers on Vaughn Street in Detroit. The shower was given for Mrs. Phyllis Wallis. There were about 15 ladies present and Mrs. Wallis received some lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilhelm and daughter, Barbara, have just moved into their new home on Floral Avenue and are busy getting settled. We hope they will like it out here as well as all of us do.

Mrs. Robert Everett and daughter, Lynn, of Floral Avenue left Friday morning to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Collins, in Lafayette, Indiana. Mrs. Everett plans to surprise her mother for Mother's Day Sunday, and she expects to remain in Lafayette over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woshyna and daughter, May, were guests last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kleophus of Detroit. They had a delicious chicken dinner. After dinner they all attended the Builders Show and enjoyed it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund and daughter, Lorraine, of Hawthorne Street, attended the "going away" dinner Saturday for Mrs. Ed Hupert of Orchard Lake Road. Mrs. Hupert, Mrs. Helen Edlund, Mrs. Eva Altman and Miss Edith Reed left Saturday evening. They plan to drive to Washington, D. C., spend a day sight-seeing, and then go on to Atlantic City and New York City. They will attend the Shrine Convention in Atlantic City. They expect to be gone about one week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber and daughters of Floral Avenue spent Saturday morning in Detroit, shopping. They spent Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dogherty in Detroit. They played pinochle and Mrs. Dogherty served a lovely lunch. Everyone had a pleasant time.

Mrs. R. B. Alexander of Floral Avenue entertained guests Friday. Her guests were Mrs. May Mallick of Pontiac, Mrs. Frank Edgewood and Mrs. Florence Sanders of Detroit. The ladies played pinochle. After the card game, Mrs. Alexander served a light lunch. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoeglund of Hawthorne Street spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barber of Floral Avenue.

They played pinochle. After the card game, Mr. Hoeglund demanded birthday cake with coffee, as it was your correspondent's birthday. I apologized for not having any cake and began to fix the sandwiches for the lunch. Mr. Hoeglund slipped out to his car and brought back a beautiful birthday cake which they had kept hidden during the evening. So Mr. Hoeglund got his piece of birthday cake and coffee after all, and Mrs. Barber was overwhelmed with surprise. Incidentally, I want to thank all of you that remembered my birthday with gifts. You shouldn't have done it, but the gifts are all so lovely and thanks a million. The only thing I can say is that I have the nicest neighbors in the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tomlin of Floral Avenue entertained guests Sunday from Marlin City. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tomlin and son, Craig. Mrs. Tomlin served a lovely dinner. They spent the day visiting together and the guests admired Mr. and Mrs. Tomlin's new home very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woshyna and daughter, May, spent Sunday in Detroit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harcourt and baby, Donna. Mrs. Harcourt served a delicious dinner of beef roast, vegetables and home made pie a la mode. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"What's Your Opinion, Mister?"

Fellow from one of those public opinion polls was in Andy's Garden Tavern, querying Andy's patrons on everything from that "new look" to the next election.

And it occurred to me that there's nothing more typically American than collecting other folks' opinions, as well as giving out with one's own. And from where I sit, it's a mighty healthy habit.

So long as people can discuss both sides of a question that comes up—whether it concerns short skirts versus long, beer compared with cider, or the larger issues of party versus party—we're sure of the individual liberty that has made this country great.

For it isn't differences of opinion that matter. The important thing is tolerance for differences of opinion—whether they affect the right of an individual to vote, to speak his mind, or enjoy a glass of beer. They're all parts of the freedom that we cherish!
