Candidates For Farmington School Board

SAMUEL KOSMENSKY

Mr. Samuel Kosmensky, 2880a Greengate, is a candidate for election to the Farmington Township School Board. He received his education in Detroit Schools, and attended the University of Michigan and Wayne University.

He has five children, all of them having attended the Farmington Schools, two of them being in school at the present time. He has lived in Farmington Township for the past 12 years.

Mr. Kosmensky is a former president of the Farmington Parents Teachers Association, a member of the Bond Parents Club, and a member of the Farmington Area Recreation Commission.

ROLFE H. SMITH

Rolfe H. Smith, 22223 Prospect, Farmington, is a candidate for election to the office of Trustee of the Farmington Township School District.

Mr. Smith is Plymouth District Manager for the Consumers Power Company, which territory includes Farmington. He has been associated with the company for 22 years, during which time he has lived in Farmington, and for over 14 years he has made his home in Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have two children, Sheldon and Craig.

SAMUEL B. TURNER

Mr. Samuel B. Turner, 21689 Albion, is seeking election to the office of trustee on the Farmington Township School Board. Mr. Turner was born in Edinborough, Scotland. He graduated from Durrie High School, and had five years of apprenticeship training at West End Engine Works in Edinborough, one of the largest machine shops training mechanics for industries abroad.

DOLORES AULT IS BRIDE OF GEORGE COOKE

In the presence of a group of friends and relatives which filled the Farmington Baptist Church, Dolores Jean Ault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault of Shadydale Avenue, was united in marriage on Saturday afternoon, June 5, to George Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooke, 4250 Shadydale Avenue. The altar was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli, petunias and lilies.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Elsa Nyström, with Mr. Elmer Schuchardt at the piano, charmingly sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and, at the beginning of the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer." The bride, gowned in traditional white satin, with lace edged finger-tip veil, and carrying a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas, came down the aisle and was given away by her father.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Mary Krueger, wore pale blue marquisette and carried rose roses. The bridesmaids, Shirley Ault, a sister of the bride, and Miss Barbara Harrison, wore pink and blue marquisette, with picture hats. Shirley carried red roses and white carnations, and Barbara carried tea roses.

Stanley Cooke was his brother's best man, and Wayne Ault was used in the service, judged to be one of the prettiest weddings of the season.

Pretty, gaily colored-gowns of relatives added much to the attractiveness of the scene. The youthful mother of the bride wore a costume of pink and white, and Mrs. Cooke looked very nice in navy blue and white. Both wore white carnation corsages. Guests were in attendance from Detroit, Ohio, and Indiana, as well as Farmington and Westland, Mich. Among them was Mrs. Lida Sheets, the 96-year-old great aunt of the bride.

At five-thirty a wedding dinner was served to members of the local party at the Devon Gables on Long Lake Road. A reception followed at the Ault residence on Shadydale Avenue, where between two hundred and fifty and three hundred neighbors, friends and relatives, dropped in for the occasion.

Refreshments were served on the well lighted lawn. Used in serving was a crystal-ice stand, which had been a wedding gift of Mrs. Ault's mother, and another in green crystal, which had been among the wedding gifts of Mrs. Ault's mother, more than sixty years ago. Use of other family heirlooms added to the interest of the affair.

Aided by the groom, the bride cut and distributed the beautiful wedding cake. Later they appeared together on the balcony and tossed the bridal bouquet, which was caught by Elsa Nyström, though Phyllis Ault managed to seize a few falling roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooke are honeymooning with relatives in Indiana. Later they will be at home on Hugo Avenue, where an apartment is being made ready.

Mrs. Cooke is a Farmington High School graduate and an employee of the Farmington State Bank. Mr. Cooke is an overseas veteran and is employed in Pontiac.

On display at the Ault residence is one of the largest collections of glass, crystal and silver in this locality. The bride and groom are very appreciative of the many tokens of regard showered upon them.

The total sales of milk, cream and butter brought 208 million dollars. Value of milk and cream used by farmers was about 20 million dollars.

NAMED MANAGER

C. GERALD PARKER

Congratulatory messages and flowers have been pouring in at the Barium Hotel this last week, where C. Gerald Parker took over in the capacity of resident manager. Mr. Parker has been connected with hotels and resorts in Detroit, Sault Ste. Marie and Florida for the last 18 years, and has been associated with the Barium Hotel for the past three years.

Mr. Parker lived in Farmington for 17 years, and graduated from Farmington High School with the class of 1926, after which he attended Albion College for one year, and the University of Michigan for two years. He is the son of Mr. C. Parker of New Hudson, Michigan.

Mr. Parker's Farmington friends join with his associates in extending best wishes for continued success in his new undertaking.

Homecoming Reunion Honors Army Sergeant

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Russell Penrich arrived last week from Okinawa, on an extended visit to his mother, Mrs. Louise Penrich and sister, Mrs. Nicholas Day, on Gill Road.

Staff Sergeant Penrich has been in service for four years, and this is the first time in that period that he has seen his mother and it has been eight years since he last saw his sister.

Nineteen members of the immediate family were at the Day home on Sunday for the reunion.

Staff Sergeant Penrich was married in Okinawa in December. His wife is his former nurse, and her home is in New York City. His present enlistment is up in September, at which time he plans to reenlist and make the Army his career.

MOTHERS CLUB TO HAVE ANNUAL OUTDOOR PICNIC

Mrs. Richard Gaul, 34020 Oakland Avenue, will be hostess to the Methodist Mothers' Club at their annual outdoor picnic on Wednesday, June 16, at 7:00 p.m. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Rolfe Smith, Mrs. Houghten Stucker, Mrs. Paul Button, Mrs. John Wynn and Mrs. Parrel Weber.

The dessert and beverage will be furnished by the committee assisting the hostess and each member is reminded to bring her own sandwiches, and one dish to pass, as well as her own table service.

This picnic concludes the activities of a very successful year. Meetings will resume again in September under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Cooley, president, Mrs. Wilbur Shogquist, vice president, and Mrs. Paul Button, secretary and treasurer, who are the new officers elected at the May meeting.

Borrowing all of his working capital often puts a farmer in an unsafe financial position. MSC agricultural economists say that debts should be reduced to a conservative level as soon as possible.
