IRON MOUNTAIN, MICH. — A stop watch timed race was sponsored by a local decorator as incentive for the opening of this community "Clean Up Week". Here twenty-nine painters stand, brush in hand, ready for the starting signal. It took just eight minutes before the last man laid down his brush, completing a thorough one coat painting with the new titanic sunproof paint from roof to eaves. The stunt served to spur citizens in their clean-up, paint-up drive.
