Food Will Be Short In Europe, Farm Heads Say

Despite near record crop production in Europe this year, there will still be an inadequate food supply. This view was expressed by three Michigan farm leaders who recently returned from six weeks in Europe.

Members of an agricultural leaders' tour were Walter L. Kirkpatrick, Antrim county agricultural agent; Carl E. Buskirk, Paw Paw, president of the Michigan State Farm Bureau; and Roy D. Ward, Dowagiac, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

They report a record potato crop and that hard grain production is good. European farmers, they say, are hampered by shortages of fertilizer, equipment and power.

Miss Ellen Lewis, Hubbard Avenue, is visiting her grandmother in Detroit for a week.

The Grudys, Hubbard Avenue, visited Homestead Lake last week end.

Mrs. John Varhol and children spent last week with friends at a lake cottage in the north.

Little Miss Carol Buckingham is now convalescing from a bad attack of measles.

Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong has been ill for a week.

The Immons, Hubbard Avenue, have gone north for a ten day vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Willet and daughter, Jeanne, have returned home from a vacation in northern Michigan.

Mrs. Albert Helchman spent Thursday with her daughter in Redford.

Miss Nancy Williamson, Mayfield Avenue, is having a week's visit with relatives in Detroit.

Mrs. Louis Graham spent Thursday evening with friends in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Meade, from Redford, were visiting the Buckinghams Thursday.

Steve Cronin, of Detroit, is spending a few weeks at the Weigle property on Norfolk. A few years back, Mr. Cronin, who is a nephew of Mrs. Mary Weigle McCubbin, lived some little time in West Point Park.

All of last winter he was in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Marling, of Eight Mile Road, entertained a large group of friends at their home on last Monday evening, the 5th.

Neighborhood friends of Miss Frances Kauranen gathered at her home on Mayfield Avenue Friday evening and joined in celebrating her thirteenth birthday. It was a happy time for all concerned.

Mrs. M. E. Ault has learned from her daughter, Mrs. Johnson Porter, of New London, Ohio, that the two Porter children are ill with measles.

The Porters recently spent ten days visiting in West Point Park.

Rural Route No. 6 is no more. Improvements in the Farmington postal system have led to a re-routing, which resulted in the laying out of five instead of six routes. Folker sub patrons are now included on Route 2. The new order of things began last Tuesday and naturally, there has been considerable confusion, but it is hoped all will soon become normal again.

Mrs. Walter Dixon, from over on Breton Road, is leaving this week for Indian Lake, Michigan, where she will spend several days in attendance at a camp-meeting sponsored by the Nazarene Church.

Miss Joanne Craig, who, for some time has been with her aunt, Mrs. Stanley Chafey, is now residing with her father in Detroit.

Little Bobby Karr, a mad dog victim of a few weeks ago, seems in a fair condition at his parents' home on Hubbard Avenue. However, he must be under close observation for yet a number of weeks, after which plastic surgery may be advisable.

The McMullans, from Mark Twain Avenue, were all guests of Mrs. McMullans' parents, the Magners, a night during the week. The McMullans have lately returned from an Eastern vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berger, of Mayfield Avenue, were in attendance Saturday, the 3rd, at the noon wedding of Mr. Berger's niece, Ruth Murphy, of Berkley, to Robert Mink of 2nd St. Detroit. The ceremony was performed in the chapel at the Shrine of the Little Flower. The couple will reside in Royal Oak. Among the guests at the festivities were Mrs. William Zuehl, from Bay City, and Mrs. Alma Welter, former residents of this section and both well known in West Point Park. A few days previous to the marriage, Mrs. Berger tendered a personal shower to the bride. The affair was held at the Berger residence on Mayfield Avenue. Participants were relatives.

The Lavonia Methodist ladies held the regular meeting of their group in the church Thursday afternoon. These women are having some very happy times together as they plan for a bazaar and such activities. Upon this occasion they received the heart-warming news that the entire cost of a stove ordered for the church kitchen had been taken care of by a certain individual.

Friday was house-cleaning day in the Neighborhood Church. A committee of five spent the afternoon in vigorous efforts.

Sunshine Sisters, with the co-operation of the local greenhouse, have placed a bed of gay geraniums near the Neighborhood Church.

Our guests explained they "always" pushed off from this spot.

Other tourists arrived with canoes or boats.

"Where can I put this boat in the river?"

Like a traffic cop presiding over a busy street, I volunteered detailed instructions to each guest. "Drive down the trail to the first bend. Park your car there. Carry the canoe down the footpath to the river's edge. A swell place."

Across the river, down at the bend, two men were putting up a cabin. They had engaged the Indian Trail lodge on Kellogg road to furnish lumber. The easiest way to deliver it was by boat, ferrying the supplies across the stream from our camp, and all with automobile horn signals and putting of an outboard motor.

Our Sunday guests included a fellow who took possession of a deep trout hole near the spring's outlet. Well, by actual count, more than 60 persons — men, women, children and pets — swarmed over our leased land in one week end. Fly rods to the left. Canoes to the right.

It suddenly dawned on us that a lot of other folks had traveled to the spacious North Country, too, in quest of solitude and relaxation. It also dawned on us that we were vastly outnumbered — a good 30 to 1 — as to enjoyment of this popular AsSable camping and fishing spot. The place fairly shouted: "Don't fence me in!"

Well, we don't intend to.

Who are we to dispossession so many people of their pleasure?

Anyhow, we're too tired!

Mr. and Mrs* Lyman Bush and sons attended the Hibbler family reunion at Inlay City on Sunday. They reported another reunion of a Hibbler family was also held the same day, in the same park, making quite a coincidence. David Bush, who had spent the past week with his grandparents, returned home with his mother and father. Everyone had a very enjoyable day.
