 BY MRS. SARAH KNAPP

The Graham Reunion met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsey Sunday with 65 people present. Pot luck dinner was served on tables in the private Birch Park on Loon Lake and some of the party enjoyed a dip in the lake. The meeting was called to order by the president, William Knapp. Secretary Dick Crane read the minutes of last year's meeting. New officers were elected with Mrs. Alice Aldrich as president, Lemuel Irving Long, was named. Mrs. Lemuel Irving as secretary. A committee for sports, Mrs. Lee Giegler, Mrs. Graham Giegler and Mrs. David Long, was named. The oldest lady present was Mrs. Edith Graham, 80 years, 11 months and 21 days, and the oldest man was Lawrence Giegler. The oldest married couple present were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Giegler who had been married 39 years, and the youngest married couple were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Crane who had been married two years. The youngest baby present was Judy Kay Lindsey. Alice Marie Aldrich played several selections on the accordion. Games and prizes were provided for everyone and a ball game was played by the men folks, ending in a close score. The next Graham Reunion will be held the third Sunday in July at the home of Graham Giegler, northwest of Howell.

TROUBLE IN ITALIAN CAPITAL

ROME, ITALY — Radiophoto — This photo, just received via radio, shows a huge crowd milling around Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti after he was seriously wounded by a would-be assassin. His assailant was identified as Antonio Pallante, a 25-year-old university student. The shooting took place outside the Italian Chamber of Deputies which Togliatti was leaving. The Italian Communist leader was rushed to the Polytechnic Hospital for an emergency operation and Togliatti's condition was described as grave. Immediately after the attempted assassination a state of emergency was proclaimed in the Italian capital.
