Trojans Fall

Family Record

Wayne State swim captain Dale Baggett continued to keep the school's 200-yard individual medley record in the family. His 1972 time of 2:08.127 vs. Oakland broke his own mark of 2:10.5. His brother, Neil, a WSU freshman, held the previous record of 2:11.5.

Bloomfield Andover swept its fourth tennis triumph in Wayne - Oakland competition with a victory over Clarenceville, 4-1.

The lone Trojan winner was senior Bob LaForest in the first singles, 2-6, 6-1, 6-1 against Dave Goodie.

Clarenceville stands 2-3 in the league and 2-5 over all.

Scoring Mark

Michigan State's career record for most goals scored in hockey is 74 by Doug Volmar in the 1964-65, 1965-66 and 1966-67 seasons.

Churchill Scores First Over Mott

The Churchill Chargers are on the move with a non-league win over John Glenn and a Western Six track triumph over Waterford Mott.

How sweet it is for Churchill Coach Fred Price. The Mott victory was the first ever for a Charger track squad over the Waterford cindermen.

Talk about exciting finishes...the Glenn and Mott meets couldn't have been any closer. Churchill captured the 440 to tip Glenn, 64-59, and again won the 440 relay against Mott to win, 64-59.

The Glenn meet saw four Churchill school records go by the boards. Dennis Kuris ran the mile in 4:27.3; Bob Miller clocked the 100 yard dash in :10.2; Don Philipps ran the low hurdles in :20.4; and the 440 relay won in :45.5.

CHURCHILL STANDS AT 5-2 overall and 3-0 in Western Six competition.
