NOVI NEWS

By MRS. GEORGE WAITE
TELEPHONE NORTHVILLE 950-J3

Mrs. Frank Tamm spent a few days the past week with Mrs. Laura Kistler in Canada.

Mrs. Frank Tamm had the misfortune last Wednesday to fall and break her leg. She is resting very comfortably at her home on Eleven Mile Road. We all wish for her a speedy recovery.

MISS HILL IS BRIDE OF MILTON HANKS

The Baptist church at Novi was beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladioli and white delphinium before a background of palms Friday evening, August 20, the wedding of Margaret Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill of Runney, New Hampshire, and Milton B. Hanks of Novi was celebrated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a gown of white marquisette, with round neck and square yoke, outlined with silk lace. Long sleeves ended in points over a peplum, outlined with matching lace, extended into a fishtail design, running into the train. She wore a shoulder length veil.

The groom, wearing a tuxedo, carried a white Bible on which rested a corsage of white gardenias tied with white satin streamers.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Hill, and the bridesmaid was Audrey Graham. Both were dressed in identical gowns of blue and yellow marquisette, floor length. They carried arm bouquets of yellow mums and daisies, tied with matching ribbons. They wore corresponding tiaras and shoulder-length veils.

The groom's attendant was his cousin, Reginald Barney of Runney, New Hampshire, and ushers were the bride's brothers, Edwin Hill and cousin, James Erwin of Farmington.

Mrs. Florence Burton played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and accompanied Mrs. Rebecca Marr, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for about 100 guests in the church parlors, where cake and punch was served by the ladies of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a linen cloth and was centered with flowers, a four-tiered wedding cake and candles.

The bride's mother was dressed in a gown of aqua crepe, with black hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The young couple left for a week's motor trip to the northern part of the state, and will return to Novi for a few days before leaving for Plymouth, New Hampshire, where the bridegroom is in the dairy business. For going away, the bride wore a white equestrian dress with white accessories, and the groom wore a tuxedo.

The bride graduated with the class of 1944 from Fowlerville, and attended Houghton College at Houghton, New York, for two years. There she met her husband. He also attended Houghton College, after serving two years in the Navy and graduated from high school in Plymouth, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Hanks had been employed at Novi Equipment Company and for the past year and a half she has been at the A & P Store in Walnut Lake.

Several showers and parties have been given in her honor. A personal shower was given by Mrs. James Erwin, a miscellaneous shower was tendered by Audrey and Pauline Graham and Maxine Marr and Mrs. Hill gave a glassware shower.

Guests at the wedding were present from Farmington, Novi, Northville, Walnut Lake, Detroit, South Lyon, Washington, D.C. and New Hampshire.

Upon their arrival at Plymouth, New Hampshire, the young couple will be given a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hanks.

Can Openers
Safest can opener is one with a revolving motion that folds under the sharp freshly cut edge of the can top. If it is necessary to use the common pry-type of can opener the can should be held firmly supported on the table. Special cases should be exercised so that the can does not slip, as jagged edges of the can are turned up by this type of can opener. The hand may be protected by a rubber pad on top of the can when the pry-type opener is used.

Famous Collector
Dutchess of Windsor collects jeweled birds as symbols of good luck. She has a beautiful flamingo pin, a little owl, a blue bird of diamonds and sapphires, and a diamond parrot quill six inches long.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. William Irish wishes to thank her friends and neighbors for the lovely cards and flowers sent her while in the hospital. She has now returned to her home.
