Diane Candies, operated by Orville Windell, announces the opening of a new store at 31655 Plymouth Road in Rosedale Gardens. These delicious, homemade candies were formerly made and sold at Edna's Cream Jug on Eight Mile Road, but they are now made and sold at this new location.

You are invited to visit the new store and try some of the delicious fudge, with nuts all the way through it — it's really something like you have never tasted before. All the candies made by Diane Candies are hand dipped in chocolate and processed with the latest type of equipment.
