GREAT DAY FOR THE TOWNS OF READING

WASHINGTON, D.C. — SOUNDPHOTO — President Truman does a double handshake as he greets Alderman H. W. Kersley (left) of Reading, England, and Mayor John R. Davis, of Reading, Pennsylvania, who called at the White House to invite the President to attend the bicentennial celebration of the Pennsylvania city.

WEST POINT PARK

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARM. 1461-M

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Owen and their three children enjoyed the excursion to Bob-Lo Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman and their three younger children are having a week's vacation in northern Michigan. During their absence the Coolman house will be occupied by a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Roberts.

Mrs. Forrest Ault and her two children spent most of the last week with relatives in Flint. Little Miss Marcia is remaining for this week also.

Mrs. Imonen and her two sons, of Hubbard Avenue, visited Bob-Lo last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Haas, from out Grand River, have just returned from a trip to Louisiana. They visited Mr. Haas' father, who has been very ill.

The Johnsons, from New London, Ohio, arrived last Friday evening for a week end visit with the Edwin Johnsons, of Charita Avenue. Mr. Johnson, Mr. Porter and Mr. Forrest Ault got together for a fishing trip.

Ira Macner's brother and family from Indiana arrived Wednesday for a little visit with relatives here. There was excitement on Shady-side Avenue last Wednesday morning when a stray shot from target practice whizzed dangerously close to Patty Schult.

Doris Mae Jennings narrowly escaped serious injury last Tuesday evening when she collided with a swing from which a playmate was alighting. She received facial injuries making it necessary for a physician to put in three stitches.

Young Jimmy Muir had a flu attack last week.

Serious illness of Mrs. Neal's mother called the Neales of Hubbard Avenue away last week.

Freda Ault left Friday night for Washington, Pa., where she would represent the West Point Park Aults Saturday at the marriage of her nephew, Edmond Thomas Ault and Mary Lou Sprrows.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keyser of Huntington Woods were calling on West Point Park relatives Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McVier and children, Shady-side Avenue, have returned from a vacation trip near the Straits.

Mrs. Cecil Willet entertained Saturday afternoon, honoring the birthday of her daughter, Joanne. Young friends, laden with pack-ages, and accompanied by their mothers, were guests.

Mrs. Frank Gieseler, Farmington Road, is convalescing from a serious illness.

Russell Ault and his son-in-law,

Grayling for a week's vacation.

While the Stanley Chaveys are away on vacation, Mr. and Mrs. David McWhinnie and son, from Detroit, are occupying the residence of Mrs. McWhinnie's parents, the Chaveys.

Mrs. Willet, from Redford, was the week end guest of her son, Cecil Willet and family.

Louis Jennings is making headway with an addition to his home. Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, from near the Children's Home, were calling in the Folker sub. Saturday evening.

In the Emerson Ault garden patch on Mayfield Avenue, there are numerous sunflower stalks, each bearing dozens of blossoms. At least one plant displays more than fifty bright blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slevin, from Akron, Ohio, arrived Saturday evening for an overnight visit with relatives in this vicinity.

The Kauranens are back from a camping trip in northern Michigan. Mrs. Marvin Peterson and her three children; also a friend, Mrs. Campbell, all from Wayne, were calling upon Miss Lora Ault Sunday evening.

The sad news has been received here of the death, after a short illness in a Chicago hospital, of Miss Ina Peterson, who a few years back, lived on Hubbard Avenue and for some time rendered valiant service as a pianist in The Neighborhood Church. Funeral services are planned for Tuesday in Escanaba, Michigan.

Mr. Wedell, of Pembroke Avenue, is confined to his home, crippled with rheumatism.

Mrs. Walter Rehahn has received notification of the death Sunday of a nephew at Clark's Lake. She and Mr. Rehahn will attend the funeral Tuesday.

The Ladies Aid of the Livonia Methodist Church enjoyed a potluck lunch together Thursday at the home of Mrs. Austin Ault.

A quotation by Henry Ward Beecher, "Every man should have a fair-sized cemetery in which to bury the faults of his friends", was considered the finest thought conceived during the Sunshine program meeting of the Sunshine Sisters last Wednesday afternoon.

The next Sunshine meeting will be held Wednesday, September 3. Plans are under way to have an outdoor "hamburg fry" at that time.
